

Meeting International¹ Students

Cocoa met some international students at school today. She is writing in her diary about it.

21st May (Tuesday)

Sunny

Today, I met three international students. Paolo is Spanish. He told me about bullfighting². It is a popular sport in Spain which involves³ a matador⁴ carrying a red flag to irritate⁵ a bull. The bull is usually killed in the game. It sounds very cruel⁶!

Anne is a girl who comes from Britain. She told me that British people like to dunk⁷ biscuits in tea before eating them. They think biscuits that are dipped in tea taste better.

I also met a Korean called Amber. She told me that writing names in red is forbidden⁸ in Korea because red ink, which is traditionally used to write the names of the dead, is considered⁹ ominous¹⁰.

I am really glad to meet them all. It is such a great opportunity¹¹ to learn about different cultures!

LITTLE EDITOR'S TIPS

We use relative pronouns¹² to give extra information about the person or thing we are talking about.

	Usage	Example
who	used for people	Zach is the boy who is playing basketball.
which / that	used for animals and things	Oranges, which contain a lot of vitamins, are good for us.

Enoch Ng

Vocabulary

1. international 國際的 2. bullfighting 鬥牛 3. involve 涉及 4. matador 鬥牛士 5. irritate 激怒 6. cruel 殘忍的 7. dunk 把……蘸一下
8. forbidden 禁止的 9. consider 認為 10. ominous 不吉利的 11. opportunity 機會 12. relative pronoun 關係代名詞