

Suggested structure to extra writing topic of Unit 11

Greeting	- Good morning everyone.
Introduction	- Today I would like to share with you my views on whether the Internet will replace traditional books. - To me, there is no doubt that the Internet will replace traditional books.
Body	- provides a wide variety of information - browse the related information that we need for our studies - additional updated information can also be found - a book cannot obtain such a wide variety of updated information
	- is environment-friendly - saves paper - a lot of trees are cut down to make books - reading online can help the environment
	- free to make notes - we can make notes on our computers and tablets without pens and papers - we cannot make notes on borrowed book from libraries - notes can be saved with our online reading materials
Conclusion	- In conclusion, the Internet is useful, environmental -friendly and reliable. - can definitely replace traditional books - Thank you very much for your listening.