

Suggested structure to extra writing topic of Unit 4

Date & Title	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 10th October 20XX - Mid-Autumn Festival: A time of reunion
Introduction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - one of the most important traditional events for Chinese people - on the fifteenth day of the eighth month in the Chinese calendar - full of legendary stories - add mystery to the festival
Body	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Chinese people consider the festival as a time for family to reunite. - dine with family on that evening - may gather with friends or stay with family after dinner - After dinner, kids usually play with lanterns. - People eat a lot of festive food like moon cakes, sticky rice balls, star-fruits and persimmons while enjoying the full moon. - traditional moon cakes - the snowy or ice cream moon cakes for people to choose
Conclusion	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - sit by the seaside with our beloved family or friends - think of those beautiful legendary stories - What a wonderful and warm festival!