

Suggested structure to extra writing topic of Unit 6

Title	- Fun Places in Hong Kong
Opening	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - It's time for us to take a break from the hustle and bustle of the city. - There are actually many fun places in Hong Kong. - Let's take a look at two of them!
Body	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Cheung Chau is an island southwest of Hong Kong Island. - need to take a ferry to go there - Its nickname is 'dumbbell island' because its sharp looks like a dumbbell. - see Cheung Po Tsai Cave - watch the sunset on the beach - watch the Floating Colours Parade and Bun Scrambling Competition at Cheung Chau Bun Festival - good place to chill and relax - learn more about Hong Kong history and nature
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The Peak is the highest hill on Hong Kong Island. - has beautiful views of the city and harbour - take the Peak Tram to the Peak - go shopping in The Peak Tower and The Peak Galleria - take pictures with wax statues in the wax museum - enjoy the night view of Victoria Harbour - allow you to take a good look at our city
Closing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Time to relax and enjoy our city! - Go and Check Them Out!