

Track 01

- Narrator: Primary Six. Listening Assessment. Part A. Miss Chan is playing a guessing game about dream jobs with the students. Listen carefully and complete the table.
- Miss Chan: OK, let's start with Amy. Amy, please tell us more about yourself so we can guess what your dream job is. You may talk about your personality first. What do you think of yourself?
- Amy: Thanks, Miss Chan. My friends always say I'm caring because I take care of them like my younger brothers and sisters. They also think that I'm a helpful classmate because I don't mind spending an hour or two teaching them homework. *
- Miss Chan: What do you like doing in your free time, Amy?
- Amy: I like helping people and that's why I like doing voluntary work. For example, helping the elderly with housework makes me feel wonderful! It's also meaningful. I especially like looking after the animals. They're so cute and innocent. *
- Miss Chan: Do you mean you want to be a vet, Amy?
- Amy: I wish I could, but I'm afraid of seeing blood and dead bodies. I'll faint. *
- Miss Chan: What a pity, Amy!
- Amy: Yes... but I've got another dream job. That's meaningful too. I can see a lot of kids and pass onto them what I know.
- Miss Chan: Oh, I see. I think I know it. Let's guess what Amy's dream job is. * It's your turn, Tom. Are you ready?
- Tom: Sure, Miss Chan. My friends think that I'm clever. When they have problems, they always ask me for solutions. Also, I'm in the school debating team. I like talking with different people and I can always have discussions on any topics. *
- Miss Chan: That's great! What do you like doing?
- Tom: I love reading very much. I can remember what I've read. Every week, I read two books! Detective stories and science fictions are my favourites. They're so interesting.
- Miss Chan: You once told me you want to be a writer. Is it still your dream job now?
- Tom: When I was smaller, I wanted to be a writer. Yet, later I found that it might be boring. Instead of being around with books, I like meeting people more. I want to do something to help others find out what is right and fair. However, I don't like being in front of the camera. That makes me feel uncomfortable.
- Miss Chan: I guess I know what your dream job is. Have you all got it? *
- Narrator: This is the end of Part A.

Track 02

- Narrator: Part B. Karen is sharing a film with her friend Phoebe. Listen and choose the best answer by blackening the circle.
- Karen: Phoebe, I watched the film Losing in the Wonderland yesterday. I love it so much and I want to share it with you.
- Phoebe: What's it about?
- Karen: It's about an Asian boy and a European girl looking for buried treasure in the Wonderland in Europe. They're enemies at the beginning but they become good friends later and help each other. A lot of funny things happen while they're searching for the treasure. They meet pirates, witches and some monsters. They work together to beat them down. It's so exciting!
- Phoebe: It sounds attractive!
- Karen: I know you love it. Many people think it's a romance by just seeing the poster, but it's not. It's suitable for all ages.
- Narrator: Question 1. What type of film did Karen watch? *
- Phoebe: Oh, I see. How long is the film? It's quite long, right?
- Karen: Yes, you're right. I didn't expect that. That day, I thought it only lasted for two hours, but it actually lasted for another fifteen minutes! It was a bit long for me.
- Narrator: Question 2. How long is the film? *
- Phoebe: Anyway, what impressed you most?
- Karen: I loved the natural beauty of Europe. It seemed like I was travelling around with them. But what impressed me most was the storyline. The film went so smoothly. There were lots of unexpected scenes which brought me surprises. The message of the film was also very clear.
- Phoebe: I can't wait to see it.
- Narrator: Question 3. What did Karen love about the film most? *
- Phoebe: Can you tell me the ending of the film?
- Karen: Haha, I'll keep it as a secret but I have to say the screenwriter is so talented! He wrote a very different ending which we all couldn't expect. I was surprised!
- Phoebe: Interesting!
- Karen: You must see it! Let's go together. It's worth watching it again!
- Narrator: Question 4. Karen thinks the ending of the film was _____. *
- Question 5. Which of the following is NOT true about the film? *
- This is the end of Part B.
