

A. Circle the best answers to complete the sentences.

1. '(Can / Could / Would) you please help me sign the document, Mr Cheung?' the clerk requested the manager.
2. If you do not wear shin pads when you are playing football, you (should / must / may) get hurt.
3. Isaac is a very clever student. He (can / was able to / ought to) memorise 50 vocabulary items a day already when he was five.
4. 'You (ought to / should / must) strictly follow the school rules,' said Miss Ho.
5. You look gorgeous today! I think we (should / must / may) take a picture.

B. Fill in the blanks using the correct forms of the verbs in brackets.

1. I still remember playing (play) hide and seek with you when we were young.
2. There is no point arguing (argue) here, the problem won't be solved.
3. My mother promised to buy (buy) me a new mobile phone.
4. Miss Cheung let us help (help) in the Science Week next month.
5. The kidnappers threaten to kill (kill) the rich man unless his family is willing to pay them a huge ransom.

C. Rewrite the following sentences using the complex transitive verbs in brackets.

1. Mr Felton is very worried about his son. (make)
Mr Felton's son makes him very worried.
2. Kimberly thinks the upcoming competition is very important. (consider)
Kimberly considers the upcoming competition very important.
3. Class 5C voted for the class representative and Johnny won the election. (elect)
Class 5C elected Johnny the class representative.

D. Fill in the blanks using the correct forms of phrasal verbs or idioms.

1. Many people take part in the protest against the government because they want to stand up for their rights.
2. I have come up with a plan to travel around Europe with the minimum budget.
3. You shouldn't let her off the hook! She won't know the seriousness if you don't give her a warning.
4. Oliver is so selfish and mean. I really can't put up with him.
5. Can you please keep an eye on my handbag while I am away to the washroom?

E. The following is an article written by Happy Family Association. Underline the best answers to complete the article.

Everyone 1. (want / wants) their family to be intact and warm. However, when family problems happen to you, how would you deal 2. (to / with) it? Here are some tips for you.

Sometimes, you 3. (may / can) think your parents look 4. (up / down) on you and 5. (object / oppose) your ideas frequently. Maybe you think they do not care 6. (about / for) you. Even you hold different opinions, try not 7. (arguing / to argue) with them but express your feelings calmly. Set goals and make promises to let them trust your ability.

When marital discord happens in your family, do not blame yourself or anybody at first. Also, do not 8. (add fuel to the fire / let them off the hook) by adding irrational words into the argument. 9. (Put yourself in your parents' shoes / Take your parents' shoes and smell), always stand 10. (by / up) the ones who raise you 11. (by / up).

If you are facing violence, you 12. (can / should) seek help from reliable people or organizations immediately. This is the only method for you to 13. (break out in / do away with) domestic violence. A number of 14. (victim / victims) denied 15. (being / to be) abused as they tried 16. (protecting / to protect) the abusers. This is obviously not a good idea as tragedy usually follows.

Our association has been working hard to 17. (live up to / stand up for) the rights of those who face family problems. Please feel free to 18. (go / attend) our seminar on 17/12/20XX, in which our social workers will share their experience to all of you.