

A. Fill in the blanks using the correct forms of the words in brackets.

1. I guess your bag is heavier (heavy) than mine. Let me carry yours.
2. Megan is one of the most fashionable (fashionable) girls among the whole class.
3. Brenda is slim (slim) but Irene is even slimmer (slim).
4. Terrence is as intelligent as (intelligent) Daniel. They both got full marks for their assessments respectively ! .
5. Jeremy is a professional basketball player and he plays very well (good). Many people agree that he is one of the best (good) players currently.

B. Rearrange the order of the adjectives in brackets. Add the articles 'a' or 'an'.

1. a sneaky small black (small / sneaky / black) poodle
2. a charming young British (British / young / charming) lady
3. an old brown leather (leather / old / brown) tote bag

C. Fill in the blanks using the correct prepositions. Underline all the adverbs in the sentences.

1. I do exercise regularly to keep fit. I hope I can lose 5 kg by // before December and I am still working hard on it.
2. The test was extremely difficult and I could barely finish it in one hour.
3. The book store is quite remote. It is at 25 Mei Mei Street. Luckily I could still find it finally.
4. My school is on Hong Kong Island but I live in Kowloon. I usually wait for my mum at school until 6pm. Sometimes I am very tired.
5. James did really well in the competition yesterday. He will have a celebration with his friends next week. At the party, they will play and eat.

D. Underline the correct answers to complete the sentences.

1. The man (whom / who) look (embarrassed / embarrassing) just fell on the floor.
2. Ho Chi Minh City, (in which / for which) I spent my summer holiday, is really an (amazed / amazing) place.
3. Here is the place (where / which) the police found a dead body in an (abandoned / abandoning) car.
4. Billy, (whose / with whom) brother is a famous singer, is (worried / worry) about his health.
5. The young lady, with (who / whom) I studied in the same class, is now very (satisfied / satisfying) with her new job.

E. Below is a conversation between Sam and his friend, Ray, after summer holiday. Circle the correct answers to complete the conversation.

Sam: How did you spend your summer holiday, Ray?

Ray: My summer holiday was 1. (barely / extremely) great. I went to the Philippines with my family and we stayed there for one week.

Sam: Wow! I have 2. (seldom / never) been to the Philippines. Is it a good place?

Ray: Yes, I like it. The beach there is the 3. (more beautiful / most beautiful) beach I have ever seen. I think it is 4. (good / better) than those in Hong Kong. Which Asian country have you been to, Sam?

Sam: I have been to Cambodia. It is a 5. (developing / developed) country so things there are very cheap. I like Angkor Wat the best. It has a very long history, I am amazed by the architecture despite some 6. (collapsing / collapsed) parts.

Ray: I think I should go there someday. What else did you do this summer?

Sam: I joined an English course. My teacher, 7. (who / with who) is a native English speaker, is very friendly. I had lessons 8. (in / on) Monday afternoons. 9. It is a (very / hardly) nice experience.

Ray: It sounds interesting. By the way, how will you celebrate your birthday?

Sam: 10. (Usually / occasionally) I don't have a big party 11. (on / at) my birthday because my mum thinks it's too expensive. But this year, 12. (surprising / surprisingly), she said she would hold a party for me. It will be held in Fantastic Clubhouse, 13. (in which / from where) we can play table tennis and some games. Will you come and join us?

Ray: Yes but my mum won't let me go until I finish my homework.

Sam: Then finish your work 14. (quick / quickly) and play with us. See you!