Part 1

Jessie is writing a letter to her cousin, Andy.

Read the first part of the letter. Answer Questions 1 – 4.

Dear Andy,

How are you?

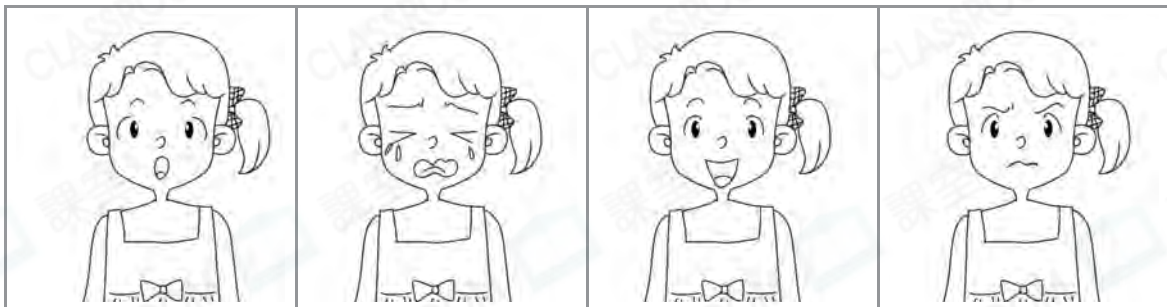

As you know, I started studying in England eight months ago. I can get used to the life here. I'm glad that I made some good friends and they are nice to me. I often do different activities with them.

I got my school report card this Monday. I received 'A's in English, Maths, and Music. However, I failed in Science because the questions were very difficult. My best friend, Jimmy, promised to help me with Science in the summer holiday. I was moved to tears!

Aunt Mary came to our school singing competition last Saturday. I performed a song 'There will always be a rainbow' in front of my classmates. They were excited about my performance. I got second place in the competition. I took many photos with my friends and Aunt Mary.

Choose the best answer by blackening the circle.

Read the second part of the letter. Answer Questions 5 and 6.

Jimmy is from Macau. Most of my classmates come from Singapore, Italy and Korea. We get on very well!

Billy is turning seven. Mum said he would come to England to study in a primary school. I am happy about it because we can live together!

How are Grandma and Grandpa? I miss them a lot. They have Facepage, right? I can chat with them on the Internet.

Please write back soon.

Best,
Jessie
