A Book about Tony Lau

Tony Lau is a famous man who owns over 35 clothes shops in Hong Kong. His daughter, Lucy Lau, is going to write a book about her father. Many newspapers and magazines often report Mr Lau's life by showing the photos of Mr Lau and his wife. This new book about Mr Lau will certainly attract a lot of readers.

5

'My life is exciting and I think people will be interested in this book,' Mr Lau said. Mr Lau started his first business when he was 19 years old. He was poor at that time and could not afford to go to school. Mr Lau is smart, so his business grew bigger and bigger. He went back to school and entered university at the age of 35.

10

How Mr Lau met his wife, Lily, is also an interesting story. Mr Lau broke his leg when he went skiing in Korea. Lily was a nurse in the hospital and took good care of Mr Lau. When he stayed in the hospital, he learnt Korean and asked Lily to marry him on the day he left. 'I think people will love this part the most,' Mr Lau said. People can get this book starting from 16 March.

Read the book cover.

Then, Pam reads the back cover of the book.

Read the information.

James's football is kicked into the garden of Mr and Mrs Awful. James knocks on their door to ask if he can take his ball back. The old wooden door opens and Mr Awful pulls James into the house. Then, Mr Awful locks the door! He wants James to work for him. He makes James get water from the well and chop up some wood for the fire. Mr Awful always shouts loudly and he smells.

5

Mrs Awful is even worse. She never takes a bath. She is the smelliest woman in the world. She always carries a big wooden spoon to hit people. She is horrible. She wants to make James into a pie!

The only nice person is Isabel, the servant. She is also taken as a prisoner, just like James. She is made to work all day long. Can the two children think of a way to escape before James becomes Sunday lunch?
