18 January 20XX

Dear Johnny,

It's snowing here! Although it's extremely cold, the view is beautiful. We had great fun during the past two weeks. Today, we took a ride on the London Eye. It is a Ferris wheel by the River Thames. Besides London, we have visited several cities including Birmingham, Liverpool and Oxford. Time flies, there's only a week left!

We'll join a local tour here and explore this city for the rest of the trip. Of course, we won't forget to buy some souvenirs. Today, we are staying with a British family in London. The hosts, Mr and Mrs Adam, are very nice. Johnny, your exam is coming. Remember to study hard!

Love,

Mum and Dad

Japanese Potter to Visit HK

By Candy Tso

One hundred and twenty pots by a Japanese potter, Rei Matsuzaki, will be on display at the Hong Kong Arts Centre soon. Mr Matsuzaki has been making pots for over 30 years. He has won over 20 awards for his artworks in Japan. It is the first time he has had an exhibition of all of his award-winning pots, so it is an unprecedented event.

In Japan, Mr Matsuzaki is praised for the unusual design of his pots. The patterns are special and usually all his pots sell out on the first day of sales. Ms Lily Chu, who is in charge of the Hong Kong Arts Centre, said that she is sure Hong Kong people will enjoy Mr Matsuzaki's interesting and unusual pots. Mr Matsuzaki will open the exhibition at 4 pm on 21 August and the last day will be 31 August.

Choose the best answer by blackening the circle.

Part 4

Johnny is reading a story about Sam.

Read the first part of the story. Answer Questions 1 – 7.

Sam was born in mainland China and moved to Hong Kong two years ago. He could not speak fluent Cantonese or English. Therefore, he did not make any friends at school. Besides, he could hardly understand what the teachers said in the lessons. Whenever he wanted to ask for help, none of his classmates was willing to lend him a hand. Also, his classmates laughed at him by calling him nasty names.

One day, Miss Lee asked Sam to go to see her in the staff room. Sam was nervous. He thought that Miss Lee would blame him for his poor results. However, Miss Lee said, 'Be confident! I know your English isn't good, but it doesn't matter. You are a hard-working boy. I'm sure you can make an improvement. Starting from today, if you have any difficulties in studying, feel free to ask me. Also, I will give you a dictionary to help you.'

Read the second part of the story. Answer Questions 8 – 12.

Later, Miss Lee gave Sam a leaflet about how to improve English.

Ways of Improving English

Learning English is not limited to just the classroom. You can learn it anytime in your daily life.

You can:

- read English newspapers every day
- listen to English songs
- join the English Club and chat with Mr Adam Johnson, our native English teacher, to improve your pronunciation

Your background is not an excuse for your poor results. Instead, hard work is the key to success!

Sam was encouraged by Miss Lee's advice. He started to develop a habit of learning English in his daily life. He read a lot of English newspapers and storybooks. He looked up the dictionary when he came across difficult words. Also, he became a friend of Mr Adam Johnson. After school, they often went to a café and had a nice chat. The English exam was coming. This time, Sam did not feel nervous any more.

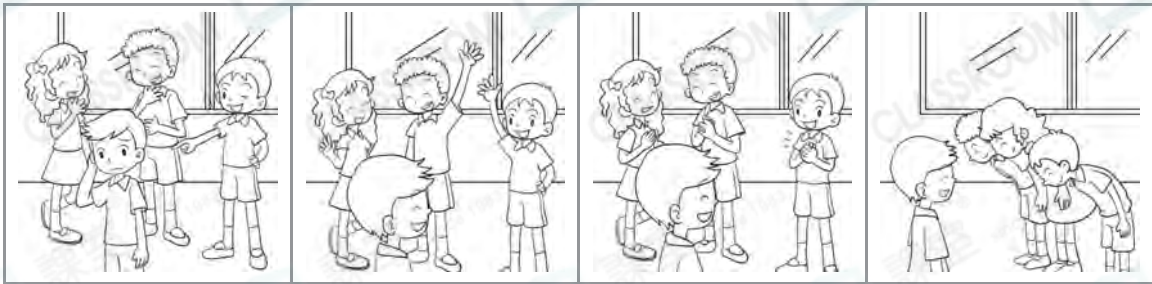

On the day Miss Lee returned the exam papers to her students, she said in front of the class, 'Congratulations! Sam, you did a nice job!' Everyone clapped their hands for Sam.

8. According to the information on the leaflet, which of the following is NOT true?

- A. We can learn English through songs.
- B. Speaking English more often can make our English better.
- C. Our backgrounds are to blame for our poor English.
- D. Learning English can become a part of our daily life.
