A Special Day

Today was a special day. Early in the morning, I prepared a special breakfast for you. Every morning, you only have a piece of bread and a glass of water because there is not much time. But today was a special day so I prepared a full English breakfast for you. I made fried eggs, sausages, baked beans and toast.

After breakfast, it was time for you to leave home for work. I changed into my clothes quickly and left home with you. We passed by a florist's on the way and you said you liked the pink roses a lot. After school, I went back to the florist's and bought them for you.

After that, I went to buy a card especially for you. There was a big cupcake at the top right corner. Under the cupcake, there was a brown round table. A black cat was on the left of the table trying to get the cupcake. You must love this card because you like both cats and cakes!

You also love spicy food very much so I went to the supermarket to buy some ingredients. This occasion only takes place once a year so I wanted to make it special for you. I felt good when you said the dinner was really delicious.

I will always remember today. Today is a day for children to say 'thank you' to their mothers. You take care of me every day. Now I want to do the same for you.
