

You are May. You went to Macau with your family yesterday. Based on the pictures below, write a diary entry about what happened. You may read the samples on the right before writing your own. Write at least 80 words.

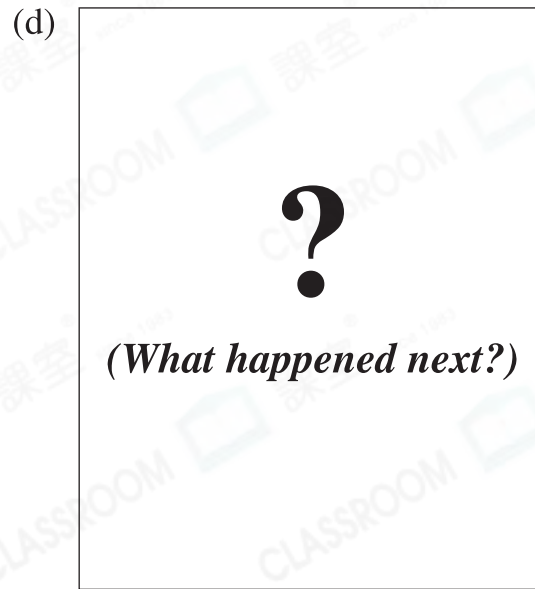

visit / take photo

Portuguese egg tart / yummy

dried meat / almond cookie

Scan the QR code for writing worksheets of Units 26 to 29.

Scan the QR code for additional step-by-step guided writing worksheets.

NEW

These are sample diary entries on a similar theme. Read through them and try to learn some words and sentence patterns. Then write your own diary entry in at least 80 words.

OK!3rd August (Sunday)

Cloudy

Today, I took my American friend, Jason, to some fun places in Hong Kong. I took him to the Ladies' Market. Jason bought a pair of trousers from a stall there. We also tried some street food. He ate some fishballs. He said they were tasty! Then I took him to the Peak. We watched the sunset. It was wonderful! We took many photos there! In the evening, we took the Peak tram to leave. We had a great time today!

Very Good!3rd August (Sunday)

Cloudy

Today, I took my American friend, Jason, to some fun places in Hong Kong. First I took him to the Ladies' Market. There were many products on sale at the stalls, such as dresses, ties and toys. Jason bought a pair of trousers and a hat from the stalls. They only cost $80. He was happy about that! After shopping, we also tried some street food. Jason ate some fishballs. He said they were tasty! Then I took him to the Peak. We watched the sunset and took many photos there. In the evening, we took the Peak tram to leave. We were frightened as it suddenly stopped! Luckily, it started moving again. What an unforgettable day!

An unexpected incident happening in the Peak tram is included to make the day more memorable.

More examples of products sold at the Ladies' Market are given.

More advanced language items are used. For example, gerund is used (e.g. 'After shopping, we also tried some street food').