

You are Robert. You went to Fun Land with your family yesterday. Based on the pictures below, write an e-mail to your friend, Martin, about what happened. You may read the samples on the right before writing your own. Write at least 80 words.

(a)

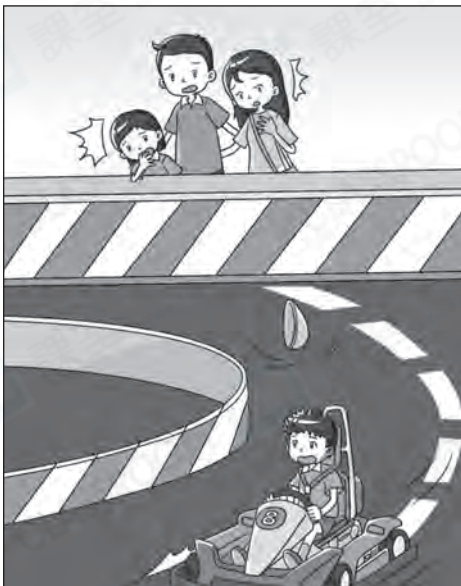

celebrate / birthday / excited

(b)

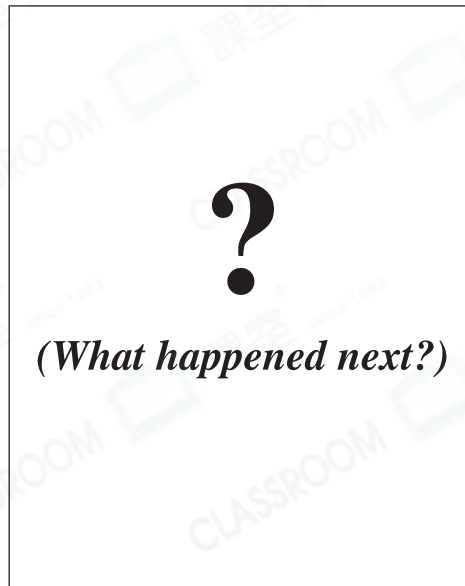

race car / watch / fast

(c)

wind / blow away / shocked

(d)

Listening

Reading

Writing

These are sample e-mails on a similar theme. Read through them and try to learn some words and sentence patterns. Then write your own e-mail in at least 80 words.

OK!

Hi Harry,

How are you? Did you have a good holiday?

My family and I went to the beach yesterday. We had so much fun. We built sandcastles, went swimming and sunbathed.

At five o'clock, we quickly tidied up our things. Suddenly, Dad told us that he could not find his car key. We looked for it everywhere. Luckily, Mum found it under our wet towels. I hope it won't happen again!

Write back soon.

Yours,

John

Very Good!

Hi Harry,

How are you? Did you have a good holiday?

My family and I went to the beach yesterday because the weather was so nice. The sky was clear and bright. We had so much fun. We built sandcastles, went swimming and sunbathed. The water was so cool and comfortable. It was so relaxing!

At five o'clock, we quickly tidied up our things. As we were walking to our car, Dad was worried because he could not find his car key! Then we looked for it everywhere. Luckily, Mum found it under our wet towels. I hope it won't happen again!

Write back soon.

Yours,

John

A reason for why they went to the beach during the holidays is given.

More details of the activities they did on the beach are given.

More information about the incident is given, such as how Dad felt when he could not find his car key.