A Day Tour to Happy Town

Do you want to go on a day tour to Happy Town? If you do, you will find this handy travel guide helpful. Let's get started!

1st Stop - Curry House

Of course, you will want to eat something right after getting off the train. Curry House will definitely be the best option because it is only a couple steps away from the train station! Also, it is well-known for its tasty Indian curry and its low prices! There are a number of similar restaurants around there. Do not enter a wrong one. At the entrance of Curry House, you will see the restaurant's logo. It is a man holding a red bowl of curry on top of his head. Also, there is a brown spoon instead of a yellow spoon in his hand.

2nd Stop - Southern Pier

After a yummy lunch, why not have a walk along the seaside? Southern Pier was originally a military pier during World War I, and was re-opened to the public five years ago. The scenery there is nice and therefore it becomes one of the must-see tourist spots in Happy Town. You can take a 3-minute walk from the pier to the Military Museum. Remember to take a look inside after the seaside walk.

3rd Stop - Happy Old Street

I bet you will feel hungry again after visiting the museum! How about eating some local snacks in Happy Old Street? This is certainly a good idea because you cannot try better traditional local snacks anywhere else! The street is around 2 km long, and it may take you around an hour to finish the walk.

4th Stop - Sakura Hot Spring

How much food have you eaten today? Yes, I know you are feeling full. Don't worry! Just take a dip in Sakura Hot Spring which can help with digestion. It is believed that spring water can make our skin look better too! How amazing!
