Last Saturday was the most unforgettable day of my life. I attended an interview at Bravo Drama Company and auditioned for a minor role in a musical.

About a week before the interview, I was very worried. Every evening, I went swimming to relax myself. In order to prepare well for the audition, Mum and Dad enrolled me in a drama workshop. My elder sister, who has had more interview experience, asked me some questions every night. She asked me about my hobbies, my favourite actors and my dreams. She also taught me how to give clear and interesting responses.

On the day of the interview, I woke up early in the morning. Mum, Dad and I left home at nine. Usually, it takes about fifteen minutes to go to the company. But, due to the wet weather, it took us longer that day. We finally arrived at the company at ten o'clock, twenty minutes before the interview.

When they called my name, I walked into the interview room. At first, I was shaking like a leaf. However, I felt a bit better when I saw the interviewers smile at me. First they gave me five minutes to perform a talent show, so I sang a song. Then I told them about the prizes I had won. After that, we talked about dramas and films. Twenty minutes later, I was done with the interview.

When I left the interview room, I was calm and satisfied. I thought I did well in the interview. I hope I can be one of the members of this drama company!
