Galaxy World

Galaxy World has finally opened recently. Many say it is better than other theme parks as it offers many exciting rides and entertaining shows. Since it was the end of the school year, my parents took my brother, Terry, and me to Galaxy World to relax and have fun yesterday. We were eager for it.

When we were at the ticketing office, the staff gave each of us a superhero badge. It was a special gift as it was only given to visitors who entered the park before 9 am. Terry was on top of the world when he received it. After we entered the park, we went straight ahead to 'Superheroes' Kingdom'.

When we were walking to 'Superheroes' Kingdom', Terry's eyes sparkled with joy when he spotted a kiosk selling superhero lollipops. Then Mum bought him two lollipops. While we were waiting for the superhero musical to begin, Terry shared one of his lollipops with me. He could be such a sweetheart sometimes. Watching the musical was a unique experience as I had never seen superhero characters singing and dancing on stage. Though I never liked superheroes, I had to admit that the musical was incredible as the actors and actresses acted exceptionally well to portray the characters.

We took some photos yesterday. The first one was taken before we entered the theme park. We are smiling and holding the superhero badges in our hands. We took the next one at the photo booth after we watched the musical. It was the most memorable moment of the trip! Mum, Dad, Terry and I used some props and pretended to be superheroes. Mum is holding a bow and an arrow, and wearing a black eye mask. Dad is wearing a cape and holding a hammer. Terry is wearing claws on both hands and I am holding a shield. I love Galaxy World! I hope I will visit it again soon!
