Topic: Story of Lady Vampire – Very romantic!

Wow, I didn't expect Story of Lady Vampire would be this good! The plot is very romantic and touching. I cried a few times while reading it. It's about a young and pretty vampire, Christine, who falls in love with a young human boy, Eric. Although they know it is impossible for them to be lovers, they refuse to give up on loving each other. The message is good. Thanks to my sister for recommending this book to me.

Katie, I think Story of Lady Vampire is too long – 300 pages! It is a romantic story, but the development of the story is too slow! I stopped reading it after finishing about 100 pages. Actually, I prefer Girl's Diary. In this book, a girl and a boy hate each other at first, but they gradually fall in love with each other! The things happen between them are so funny! Plus, the book has 100 pages only.

Topic: What about Star Wars Never End?

Katie and Winky, please don't ask me to read those romantic stories. As a boy, I can't endure them! To me, science fiction is good, so I prefer Star Wars Never End. It talks about the wars between aliens and humans. The fighting scenes are very exciting! Besides, the main character is a hero. He saves the Earth although he dies at the end!

I am thinking about which book to read in the coming holidays. My class teacher told me that Benny Lee: A Miracle is great. It's about the life story of Benny Lee, a professional football player. It talks about how he reached his dreams despite facing hardships. His attitude is worth learning. Which book should I choose? Umm...mostly likely, I'll read something a bit more meaningful.
