Fion's Diary

July

13 Friday

I have a fun English lesson today because Miss Chan takes us to walk around the school.

First we go to the music room. We see some students there. They are singing. I want to sing too. Peter tells me not to.

Then we go near the toilet. We hear drip-drop, drip-drop. Miss Chan goes in and turns off the tap.

When we go to the garden, we hear 'cheep cheep' sounds. Oh, there is a nest on the tree. A mother bird is feeding her babies!
