

Learn a reading skill.

What does it refer to?

Read the sentence before a word to find out what the word refers to.

e.g. What does 'there' refer to?

sentence before the word

I like Mong Kok. There are many things to buy. I like shopping.

'There' refers to Mong Kok.

Read the diary entry.

Jenny's diary

Sunny

8 August, Friday

Today is very hot. I am bored at home. Jacky wants to go shopping. Mum thinks that is a good idea.

First we go to Mong Kok. There are a lot of people. We buy some snacks in a food shop. Then we go shopping in Tsim Sha Tsui. Mum buys a pair of black shoes for Jacky and a blue dress with a big heart for me. I can wear it next Monday. It is my birthday. Sandy and Winnie are coming to my birthday party. I am very happy.

5

10

Test your understanding.

1. Read line 4. 'We' are _____.

- A. Jenny
 B. Jacky and Jenny
 C. Jacky and his mum
 D. Jacky, Jenny and their mum

2. Read line 4. 'There' refers to _____.

- A. Mong Kok                       B. the food shop
 C. Tsim Sha Tsui                 D. Jenny's home

3. Read line 8: I can wear it next Monday. 'It' is a _____.

- A. dress                                 B. big heart
 C. party                                 D. pair of shoes

4. What does Jenny's dress look like?

A.

B.

C.

D.

5. When is Jenny's birthday party?

- A. 8 August                             B. 9 August
 C. 10 August                         D. 11 August