

Read the letter.

Anne,

This is the birthday present for you. Stuart Little is a great book by E. B. White. It is about a mouse. Nobody wants Stuart at first, but Mr and Mrs Little take him home. They are very nice to him, but their son, George, does not want a mouse as their family member.

Things change when two bad people come and take the poor mouse away. George misses Stuart and tries to get him back. At last, Stuart comes back and truly becomes 'Stuart Little'.

I hope you like the present.

Love,
Dad

5

10

Test your understanding.

- What is Anne's birthday present?
 - A. a CD
 - B. a toy mouse
 - C. a storybook
 - D. a drawing book
- Read line 4. What does 'him' refer to?
 - A. Stuart
 - B. George
 - C. Mr Little
 - D. E. B. White
- Who wrote Stuart Little?
 - A. George
 - B. E. B. White
 - C. Anne's dad
 - D. Mr and Mrs Little
- Why is Stuart called 'Stuart Little'?
 - A. He is little.
 - B. His house is small.
 - C. He gets little love.
 - D. 'Little' is his family name.