

Read the second part of the story.

The Magical Fish (Part 2)

The next day the fisherman went to the fish again and asked for his second wish. 'What do you want?' asked the fish. 'I want to have plenty of gold.' 'OK!' The fisherman went back and saw his house full of gold.

The fisherman's wife kissed him and told him how smart he was. That gave the man an idea.

He quickly ran to the seaside and called the fish, 'hey, I want to make my third wish.' 'This is your last wish. You should think twice,' the fish told the man. 'I know. I want this very much. I want to be as smart as my wife!' said the man. 'Are you sure?' asked the fish. The man nodded. 'As you wish!' And the fisherman turned into a woman.

Test your understanding.

- What was the fisherman's second wish?
  - A. a wife
  - B. gold
  - C. be smarter
  - D. a golden house
- Read line 8. The fish wanted the man to _____.
  - A. tell his wish
  - B. go home first
  - C. think carefully
  - D. stop making his wish
- Read line 6. What was the 'idea'?
  - A. going to the seaside
  - B. talking with the fish
  - C. asking for more wishes
  - D. turning into a clever man
- Read line 10: The man nodded. What might he say?
  - A. 'Yes, please.'
  - B. 'No, I'm not.'
  - C. 'No problem.'
  - D. 'You're welcome.'