

Learn a reading skill.

What does the writer want to say?

The writer does not have to tell you everything. You have to read between the lines to get the meanings.

e.g. What is 'something'?

It was Judy's birthday today. Lucy took something out from the kitchen for Judy...

From these words, you can guess 'something' is a birthday cake.

Read the contents page.

Hong Kong Life

June 20XX

Cover Story: Dragon Boat Festival—Past and Present.....	2
What's hot: New shopping mall in Mong Kok .....	6
Learn to speak Cantonese!.....	8
Quiz: How much do you know about Hong Kong? .....	10
Top ten Chinese restaurants in Hong Kong .....	12
Tourists say: Why are people in Hong Kong so busy? .....	16
Cook with me: Healthy rice cakes .....	18
Weekend fun: Swimming in Kowloon Park.....	19
Joke corner .....	22
TV guide.....	23
Star signs .....	27
Letters to the Editor .....	28

Test your understanding.

- Hong Kong Life* is a _____.
  - A. newspaper
  - B. storybook
  - C. magazine
  - D. poster
- On page 18, readers can read a _____.
  - A. joke
  - B. riddle
  - C. recipe
  - D. letter
- Carrie wants to know what is on TV now. Which page should she read?
  - A. 6
  - B. 12
  - C. 22
  - D. 23

- What is the cover story about?

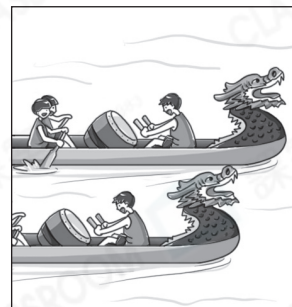

A.

B.

C.

D.

- Carrie may find ideas on where to have dinner from '_____'.
  - A. Tourists say
  - B. Weekend fun
  - C. Letters to the Editor
  - D. Top ten Chinese restaurants in Hong Kong