

Read the thank you card.

Thank you

Dear Miss Cheung,

Thank you for teaching me English this year!

I thought learning English is very hard in the past. I made mistakes all the time. Do you remember I wrote 'Tom is a cooker' in an English test? This year, my English is so much better. Your English classes are always very interesting. Learning English is fun! I am not afraid of it anymore.

Also, thank you very much for your care. I fell on the playground at recess last week. My knees were bleeding and I cried. You took care of me.

I hope you will still be my English teacher next year.

*Best wishes,
Jay*

5

10

Test your understanding.

- In line 3, what does the word 'mistakes' mean? It means Jay _____.
 - A. uses English wrongly
 - B. has more English classes
 - C. thinks English is easy
 - D. likes English more
- In line 6, 'it' refers to _____.
 - A. school
 - B. falling
 - C. class
 - D. English
- Which sentence may make Miss Cheung laugh?
 - A. Tom is a cooker.
 - B. You took care of me.
 - C. This year, my English is so much better.
 - D. I made mistakes all the time.
- When did Jay give this card to Miss Cheung?
 - A. at the beginning of the school year
 - B. in the middle of the school year
 - C. on Christmas holidays
 - D. at the end of the school year