The Young Grandma (Part 1)

Jane was a friend of Dr Time. Dr Time made a time machine just a few weeks ago. He invited Jane to try the machine.

'Dr Time, I want to go back to the time when my grandma was as young as I am,' Jane said. 'How old are you now, Jane?' Dr Time asked. 'I'm ten,' Jane said. 'Are you ready to go back to 70 years ago, Jane?' Dr Time opened the door of the time machine and let Jane in.

Suddenly, Jane saw a bright light. Soon she fell asleep. 'Bang!' A loud sound woke Jane up. The machine stopped. She opened the door and saw a small village! Jane walked towards a wooden house and saw a girl with a lovely face and short black hair. 'She must be my grandma!' Jane thought. She followed her grandma quietly.
