The Young Grandma (Part 2)

Jane saw her grandma arrive at a farm and start watering the crops. 'Oh, Grandma had to work when she was young.' After that, Jane's grandma went to the chicken house. She threw some grains of rice on the ground. Then a young boy came and showed Jane's grandma a kite. They flew the kite together. 'Oh, they didn't have computer games! I'd be bored if I lived here!' Jane thought.

Suddenly, the string of the kite broke and the kite fell onto the ground. Jane's grandma and the young boy ran after the kite. Jane followed them and saw a field of purple flowers. 'Wow! I haven't seen so many flowers before!' Jane thought.

Jane looked at her watch. 'It's time for me to go!' Jane went back to the place where she arrived. She got into the time machine and soon arrived at Dr Time's office. 'Jane, your grandma is here to pick you up!' Dr Time said. 'Grandma, did you like to fly kites when you were small?' Jane asked her old grandma. Grandma felt surprised.
