The Lazy Princess (Part 2)

On the farm, Lucia told the farmers that she was Ann's daughter. The farmers thought Lucia was there to work, so they gave her a bucket and asked her to fill it with water. Lucia could not carry the bucket because it was too heavy. When Lucia got back to the farm, the farmers asked her to put some seeds into the soil. Lucia got tired very soon. 'Help me, Miss Anna! Where are you? Poor me... Waah!' Lucia sat down and put her face in her hands.

'Why are you so sad, little girl?' A farmer asked Lucia. 'I'm tired and hungry!' Lucia said. 'Oh, why don't you have dinner with us?' The farmer invited Lucia to his house. The farmer's wife cooked some rice and vegetables for Lucia. 'Mm! It's so fresh!' Lucia could not stop eating. 'Of course! We have to work very hard to grow them,' the farmer said. 'Knock knock!' It was Miss Anna. She was there to take Lucia home. 'Thank you very much for the dinner. I now know I have to work hard to get good things,' Lucia said to the farmer.
