Dear Angie,

How are you? I hope you are enjoying your life in Canada. You are in Grade 7 now! How is your new school life?

I was very upset when you moved to Canada last year. We have known each other since we were four. We lived in the same building. We used to play in the park nearby every day. It has been eight years since then! Do you remember the time when we argued? I forgot to do my homework and I tried to copy yours before the class began. You told me to stop but I did not listen. You told Miss Cheung about it and I was punished. I was mad at you at first. We did not talk for a week. I felt so awful and I knew I was wrong. I said sorry to you and you forgave me. You taught me how to do the homework too! I learnt a lesson. I feel lucky to have a good friend like you!

Ben, Vicky and I go to the same secondary school now. Ben and I are in the same class! I am glad to have some old friends in the new school. If you were in my class, it would be so much fun!

Write soon!

Yours,
Loretta
