

Date: Marks:

12

Enjoy The Party

Pronouns – Subject, Object & Reflexive

Grammar in Focus

Subject	Object	Reflexive
I	me	myself
You	you	yourself / yourselves
We	us	ourselves

Subject	Object	Reflexive
He	him	himself
She	her	herself
It	it	itself
They	them	themselves

Sally is my best friend. She likes ice-skating.

Tommy gave me a lot of useful advice.

My brother fell down the stairs and hurt himself.

My sister and I can cook dinner by ourselves.

Mistakes Corner

✓ Children, please do your homework by yourselves.

✗ Children, please do your homework by yourself.

1. 'Tom, wash the dishes by (A yourself / B yourselves),' said Mum.
2. All of you should behave (A yourself / B yourselves) at school.

A. Philip is buying himself some clothes for the party. Draw lines to match the words to the correct pictures.

What is Philip buying for himself?

B. Many people are talking at Starry's birthday party. Circle the correct answers.

1. My parents were busy so I came to the party by (themselves / myself).
2. Peter baked a birthday cake by (himself / itself).
3. The girl decorated the house by (herself / yourselves).
4. Sam's dog is playing with (himself / itself) in the garden.
5. Ken and I cook dinner by (themselves / ourselves) every day.
6. Mr Chiu is watching TV by (itself / himself) in the living room.
7. Roy's sisters are painting pictures by (themselves / herself).
8. Kitty was cooking when she hurt (himself / herself).
9. Billy, did you make the pudding by (himself / yourself)?
10. Peter and Sam saw (ourselves / themselves) on a TV programme.
11. Children, can you set the table by (yourself / yourselves)?
12. We enjoyed (myself / ourselves) at the Christmas party.

C. Philip is talking at the party. Put the words in order to make correct sentences.

1. you Did cake the yourself? make by

2. is Sam making a himself cup tea. of

3. presents a lot of We so gave she her grateful. was

D. The party has just ended. What are Philip and his friends doing now? Look at the picture and complete the sentences.

e.g. _____ Starry _____ is unwrapping a present by _____ herself _____.

_____ She _____ is pleased.

1. _____ is cleaning the table by _____.

_____ looks very tired.

2. _____ are washing the dishes by _____.

3. _____ is sweeping the floor by _____.

4. _____ is playing with a ball by _____.

_____ loves playing with the ball very much.

5. _____ is packing the food into a box by _____.

HKAT

E. Starry wrote about the birthday party in her diary. Fill in the blanks with the correct pronouns.

13 Oct (Sunday)

● Sunny

Today was my birthday. e.g. _____ I _____ had a party at home. I invited all my friends to the party. I decorated the house with balloons and different kinds of flowers by ① _____.

My friends made a lot of food by ② _____. Mr Moon baked me a chocolate cake. ③ _____ was yummy. Philip prepared some chicken wings by ④ _____. ⑤ _____ tasted great! He also bought me a watch. ⑥ _____ is green. I like it very much! Amy made ⑦ _____ a birthday card by ⑧ _____. There were many flowers on ⑨ _____. During the party, we danced, sang songs and played games. All of us enjoyed ⑩ _____!

After the party, we tidied up the house by ⑪ _____. Some of us washed the dishes and some swept the floor. My dog was very naughty. ⑫ _____ kept messing up the room. When we finished the cleaning, it was nearly eleven o'clock. ⑬ _____ were exhausted but happy!

Be a responsible child. Help with the housework.