About Hong Kong

Relative Pronouns – who / which / where / when

Grammar in Focus

We use relative pronouns to join two sentences that refer to the same thing, person, place or time.

We use 'who' to talk about people, 'which' to talk about things or animals, 'where' to talk about places and 'when' to talk about time or seasons.

I know the boy	who	is in the school football team.
These are the clothes	which	I bought in the mall yesterday.
Beijing is the place	where	we can visit the Great Wall of China.
Autumn is the time	when	leaves start to fall.
