Narrator: CLASSROOM Champion: Primary Listening 5A

Unit 1. Part B. Miss Tang is talking with the class. Listen carefully. Choose the best answer by blackening the circle and fill in the blanks with the correct words.

Miss Tang: Class, some of you have not behaved very well at school in these few days. Thomas, why were you late for school today?

Thomas: Sorry, Miss Tang. I got up late this morning because I played online games till midnight.

Narrator: Question 1. What should Thomas do? *

Miss Tang: Tim, don't be so untidy. Look at your uniform. You have your belt but where's your tie?

Tim: Sorry, Miss Tang. I forgot to put on my tie today.

Miss Tang: Not just that. You put on the wrong socks. See! One is short but the other is long.

Narrator: Question 2. Who is Tim? *

Miss Tang: After school, I want to talk with Thomas and Tim again. Teresa, could you take them to the teachers' room after school? It's on the third floor.

Teresa: Yes, Miss Tang.

Narrator: Question 3. What does Teresa need to do for Miss Tang after school? *

Narrator: Part C. Mum is talking with the children about manners. Listen and write the numbers 1-6 in the correct boxes.

Mum: We're going to Macau tomorrow. Let's talk about how we should behave during the trip.

Jacky: Great! I love Macau!

Mum: Calm down. You should speak softly all the time.

Narrator: Write number 1. *

Mum: How should we behave on the ferry?

Fion: We should wait patiently for our turn when boarding. We shouldn't push each other.

Mum: Good point. Fion! Otherwise we'll hurt others.

Narrator: Write number 2. *

Mum: Also, we should not run on the ferry. It's very dangerous.

Narrator: Write number 3. *

Jacky: Can we eat or drink there?

Mum: Yes, we can but we must keep the place clean.

Narrator: Write number 4. *

Mum: We'll have our meals in restaurants. Can you tell me some table manners?

Fion: We should sit nicely. We should be polite to the waiters too. For example, we should say 'Thank you'.

Narrator: Write number 5. *

Fion: Will Dad go to Macau with us tomorrow?

Mum: No, he won't but he'll drive us to the pier.

Jacky: What time does the ferry leave?

Mum: It leaves at eight thirty in the morning. So we should get up at around seven o'clock. Don't be late. Otherwise we won't get on the ferry on time.

Narrator: Write number 6. *

Now choose the best answer by blackening the circle. How will they go to the pier tomorrow? *

This is the end of Part C.

Grace: Hi, Heidi, Queenie and Edward. I'm doing a survey on 'Are you a good child at home?' Could you answer a few questions for me, please?

All: Sure.

Grace: Heidi, do you help your mum do the housework?

Heidi: Yes, but not always. I sometimes help her. *

Grace: How about you, Queenie?

Queenie: Yes, I help her wash the dishes every day because she is very tired after work.

Grace: You are so helpful! How about you, Edward? Do you help with the housework?

Edward: No, I hate doing housework so I don't help at all. *

Grace: I see. OK. The next question: Do you listen to your parents, Queenie?

Queenie: Yes, I think it's important to listen to your parents because we're still very young. So I always listen to them. *

Grace: How about you, Heidi?

Heidi: Me too, I just act like Queenie. *

Grace: And Edward?

Edward: Well, it depends. My parents don't let me do anything before I finish my homework. But sometimes, when they are not at home, I watch TV before I do my homework. *

Grace: I see. Now I want to know how well you get along with your brothers and sisters. Edward, do you want to tell us first?

Edward: Sure! I love to play with my little brother and I always share my toy cars with him. And he always listens to me. So we never fight. *

Grace: Good! Do you teach him to do homework?

Edward: No, because I'm not patient enough. My mum teaches him mostly. *

Grace: How about you, Heidi?

Heidi: I don't like my sister so I don't help or teach her to do homework. * She always wants to use my computer to play games. Anyway, I never let her do that. Sometimes we even fight over this. *

Grace: How about you, Queenie?

Queenie: Well, I think Heidi should teach her sister to do homework and share her toys with her sister because sisters and brothers are our family members! We should be nice to them. I always do so with my brother. *

Grace: Queenie, I think you've made a good point. Heidi, I hope you'll listen to Queenie's advice and get on well with your sister. Anyway, Heidi, Queenie and Edward, thank you very much for your help.

All: You're welcome.

Narrator: Now answer the question. Who is the best child at home? *

Narrator: Upgrade Your Listening 1. Part A. Norman and Iris are writing captions for their photos. Listen to what they say. Circle the correct answers and fill in the blanks for the captions.

Norman: We took some pictures in Wonderland. Here they are. Shall we write some captions for them?

Iris: Good idea! Look at this picture. We had our lunch at Tina's Cafe. Norman, do you remember what Mum said to you?

Norman: Yes, I remember. I was so hungry that day. She said, 'Norman, don't eat so quickly!' because I was eating really fast.

Narrator: Now complete Question 1. *

Iris: How about this picture? What was Albert waiting for?

Norman: He was waiting for his turn to ride on the roller coaster.

Iris: The queue was very long so he waited impatiently.

Norman: Let's write about it.

Narrator: Now complete Question 2. *

Iris: I like this photo. I was holding my prize in front of the game stall.

Norman: Marvellous! You could shoot the ball into the net three times successfully.

Iris: Yes, my prize was a cute brown teddy bear. Can you help me write about this?

Norman: No problem!

Narrator: Now complete Question 3. *

Iris: Look at this photo! The people around us looked upset.

Norman: You're right. We were so excited when we were watching the cartoon character show.

Iris: Yes, I couldn't help cheering noisily especially when I saw Rabbit Benny and Bear Danny dancing on the stage.

Narrator: Now complete Question 4. *

Iris: Look at this funny photo. You fell asleep on the bench!

Norman: I was very tired. I laid on a bench near Bee Garden for just a minute. Then the park keeper came and said to me angrily, 'Don't sleep here!'

Iris: He is right. You shouldn't sleep there.

Norman: I won't do it again. It's so embarrassing. Anyway, all the captions are done. Let's show them to Mum.

Listen carefully. The conversation will begin now.

Patsy: Aunt Helen, how long will you stay in Hong Kong?

Aunt Helen: I'll stay here for a week. Then I'll go back to the USA on the twenty-first of August.

Patsy: Why don't you stay longer? We all like you so much.

Aunt Helen: I'd love to but I can't because I need to work. School starts in September. Before school starts, I need to have meetings with the principal and prepare some teaching materials. Anyway, thank you for having me at your home. You have all been so nice to me.

Patsy: You're always welcome.

Aunt Helen: By the way, Patsy, I care about you so I want to give you some advice about your table manners. At dinner time, I noticed that you ate messily when your eyes kept staring at the TV. It's not good for your health.

Patsy: I know. I should concentrate on eating.

Aunt Helen: Besides, you should also help your mum set the table. Let's start today and make some changes, alright?

Patsy: Alright. I guess I should be more helpful. I think Mum will be happy about the changes!

Aunt Helen: I'm happy that you listen to me.

Patsy: I want to be a good kid.

Aunt Helen: Oh, one more thing. You should be nice to Bobby. Don't shout at him.

Patsy: Well, sometimes he's very naughty. He barks noisily at home. He's disturbing! I can't concentrate on my homework.

Aunt Helen: I see. Maybe it is because you always keep Bobby at home and he gets bored. I think he wants to go out. You should find some time to take him out for a walk every day.

Patsy: Yes, I guess you're right. I used to do so but in these few days I've been busy doing my summer holiday homework.

I'll ask Matthew to do it for me. Anyway, thanks for your advice.

Narrator: Check your answers now.

- Patty: Haha! Why don't you exchange your prize with Betty? She wanted to get a hair clip but she won a pair of swimming goggles instead.
- Alan: Really? I'd love a new pair of swimming goggles. I can use them every week at swimming practice! I'll find her and ask her later. * I saw a very good backpack in the fair. Do you know who won it?
- Patty: I think Eddie did. I saw him carrying a new backpack.
- Alan: Oh, lucky him! * My sister, Jane is not happy. She doesn't like the towel that she won.
- Patty: Why doesn't she like it?
- Alan: She wanted the one with a flower pattern on it but she got the one with stars on it. *
- Patty: Well, I won the one with the flower pattern. If she wants it, I can give mine to her.
- Alan: Thank you, Patty. You are so generous! Jane will be very happy. * How about your twin cousins, Andy and Andes? Are they happy with their prizes?

- Patty: Yes, they both won balls.
- Alan: Are theirs the same?

Terence: The science games there are very interesting! You won't feel bored even if you play them several times. * How about you, Alice?

Alice: I like Ocean Park best. It's really a fun place. *

Terence: Have you ever been to Disneyland? It's a fun place too.

Alice: I've been there once but I like Ocean Park more because I like to see the pandas. Also, its ticket is cheaper.

Terence: I see. How many times have you been to Ocean Park?

Alice: Last year I went there twice. This year I have been there once. So three times in total. *

Terence: Why is it your favourite place?

Alice: I enjoy riding on the cable car. I ride on it every time I go to the park. It's so exciting. * Do you like our favourite places, Maria?

Maria: Yes, both are good places. But I like to go somewhere in the countryside.

Terence: Do you like Sai Kung? Many people like hiking there.

Maria: No. Although Sai Kung is a good place, it's not my favourite place. My favourite place is Yuen Long. I've been there twice. *

Terence: What did you do there?

Maria: For the first time, I bought 'wife cakes'. They were so yummy. For the second time, I had a barbecue with my family there. * By the way, I'll go to Kam Tin Tree House this coming Sunday. Would you two like to go there with me?

Terence &

Alice: Yes, we'd love to.

Narrator: Now choose the best answer by blackening the circle. Where will Maria go this Sunday? *

Mr Jones: It's my first time visiting Hong Kong. Can you tell me some attractions?

Daniel: Certainly. Have you ever travelled on a tram?

Mr Jones: No, I haven't but I want to try. Where can I try it?

Daniel: You can ride on a tram in Causeway Bay.

Narrator: Write number 1. *

Mr Jones: Are there any dolphins in Hong Kong?

Daniel: Yes, there are. You can see them in Ocean Park.

Mr Jones: No, I mean those wild pink dolphins in the sea.

Daniel: Oh, yes. You can see them in Tai O.

Narrator: Write number 2. *

Daniel: Hong Kong has many beautiful islands. Do you want to go there?

Mr Jones: Sure. I've heard that people on one island hold a very special festival, Bun Festival every year. Is it Cheng Chau?

Daniel: No, it should be Cheung Chau. You can go there by ferry.

Narrator: Write number 3. *

Mr Jones: I like eating seafood. Are there any seafood restaurants in the New Territories?

Daniel: Yes. You can find some in Lau Fau Shan and Sai Kung. Which one do you like?

Mr Jones: Yesterday I went to Lau Fau Shan with my friend. Today I'd like to go to Sai Kung.

Narrator: Write number 4. *

Mr Jones: I already know some scenic spots on Hong Kong Island and in the New Territories. How about those in Kowloon?

Listen carefully. The conversation will begin now.

- Mum: Do you want to go to the Museum of History this Sunday, Oliver?
- Oliver: No, I've been there twice.
- Mum: How about the Space Museum?
- Oliver: No, I'm tired of museums. Can we go somewhere else?
- Mum: OK. Do you want to go to Mong Kok? I want to do some shopping there.
- Oliver: Mum, you'll go there with Aunt Judy tomorrow, remember?
- Mum: Oh, yes, I almost forgot.
- Oliver: I'm afraid I won't go there with you tomorrow. I don't like going there anyway. It's too crowded.
- Mum: So where do you want to go on Sunday?
- Oliver: I want to go to a place that is close to nature.
- Mum: How about the Music Farm? We can play music, plant vegetables and fish there.
- Oliver: Good idea! I have never planted before. It should be fun.
- Mum: I think so.
- Oliver: Mum, can I invite Kelvin's family to go there with us?
- Mum: Certainly. You haven't seen your cousin, Kelvin for a long time. I also want to see his mum and dad. You know, his dad, Jack is my brother. I really want to know how he's getting on.
- Oliver: Mum, do you know how to get there?
- Mum: We can take the MTR and then walk for 20 minutes.
- Oliver: The website says that we can also take a bus and then take a taxi to get there.
- Mum: It's our first time going there. I prefer your way. It's better to take a taxi to go there and save the time searching for it.

Brian: Good morning. I'm your DJ Brian Bell. Today we're so excited to have the famous writer Anita Law in our programme.

Anita: Hi, everyone. I'm Anita Law.

Brian: Anita, do you mind telling us your age?

Anita: Of course not. I was born in 1965. Now you know how old I am. *

Brian: I know that you were born in the mainland China. When did you come to Hong Kong?

Anita: I came to Hong Kong with my family in 1971. I was six at that time. Time flies. I've been here for about fifty years. *

Brian: When did you start to have an interest in writing?

Anita: I have liked writing since I was young. In school, my writing was always praised by my teachers. However, when I studied at university in the UK, I took a medical course because my parents wanted me to do so. In 1980, I graduated and came back to Hong Kong where I became a doctor. *

Brian: You were a doctor then. Why did you suddenly start to write novels?

Anita: As you know, being a doctor is a very stressful job. Therefore, I wanted to do something like writing as a way to relax in my free time. So I wrote my first novel.

Brian: How long did you take to write your first novel?

Anita: I used three years to finish My Space Trip. It was published in 1983. *

Brian: My Space Trip was popular among teenagers. Then, in the following year, you won the Hong Kong Literature Competition. How did you feel?

Anita: I felt surprised and happy. I didn't expect that it would be so popular. As a reward for my readers' support, I have kept on writing novels till now. *

Brian: Anyway, why did you become a full-time writer in 1990?

Anita: At that time, I had been a doctor for 10 years. I thought it was the right time for a change. I became a full-time writer so that I could spend more time on writing. *

Brian: Anita, your decision is so right. Since then, your books have been translated into different languages. Up to this year, 2022, they have been published in 25 countries.

Anita: I'm so grateful that I can share my books with readers from different countries. I'll try my best to write good works to reward their support. *

Narrator: Now answer the question. How old is Anita Law now? *

the donated toys there.

Carmen: I see. What is Leung's Fund for?

Wilson: It's a charity to help children who do not have enough food in poor countries.

Narrator: Question 1. What is the name of the charity? *

Carmen: How much did you raise today?

Wilson: Around $2,000. If we had got more donated toys, we could have raised more. Anyway, have you got any unwanted toys? You can give them to me. I can sell them next time.

Carmen: Oh! I threw away my old toys two months ago.

Narrator: Question 2. Why CAN'T Carmen give her toys to Wilson? *

Carmen: Anyway, I want to offer a hand to your charity.

Wilson: Hmm... Have you ever sold tickets for a charity before?

Carmen: No, I've never sold tickets but I've sold flags before.

Wilson: Next month I will sell flags for charity. Would you like to join me?

Barry: What charity work will you do in the summer holiday, Rebecca?

Rebecca: I'll go on a charity walk with my brother on the tenth of August. We can raise around $700 after the three-hour walk. *

Barry: I see. What else will you do? Are you interested in visiting the old people's home? I usually go there on Mondays.

Rebecca: Yes, I am. When will you go, Barry?

Barry: I'll go there with my friends on the fifteenth of August. We have already thought of some games that we can play with the old people.

Rebecca: Good. I'm free on that day. I can go there with you. *

Charlie: I'll sell flags for the World Vision in two days. Would you two like to join?

Rebecca: Let me see... Today is the fourth of August. Two days later is Saturday. I'm free. How about you, Barry?

Barry: I'm free. Let's go together. * Have you ever planted trees in the country park? There is an activity on the twenty-third. Maybe we can join.

Rebecca: Is it Sunday? I'm not free on that day.

Charlie: No, the twenty-third is Tuesday and the twenty-first is Sunday. You can join it. *

Rebecca: I think we can do more charity work together in this summer holiday. I visited some sick children in a hospital two months ago. It was so meaningful. Let's visit them again.

Barry: Good! I like children. When can we go? I'm free except Fridays.

Charlie: Is everybody free on Saturdays?

Rebecca: OK. Let's go there on the last Saturday of August. *

Charlie: By the way, we can do one more charity work before the new term starts. Have you thrown away your old books?

Barry: Not yet.

Charlie: My school will hold the Old Book Collection Days from the twenty-ninth to the thirty-first. I'm the helper. You're welcome to give me your old books.

Host: Good afternoon to you all. You're listening to Stars Around Us. Today we have a special guest on our show. He is a famous athlete in Hong Kong, Ray Ko.

Ray: Good afternoon, everyone.

Host: Congratulations, Ray! You have just won the gold medal in the Olympic Games.

Ray: Thank you, Wendy. I'm so excited about that. I had never thought that I could win the first Olympic gold medal for Hong Kong in cycling.

Host: I know you worked very hard. How long did you train for the race?

Ray: I trained for the race for two years. Before the race, I cycled ten hours a day. It was hard but worthwhile.

Host: I know that you even stopped your study at university for one year before the Olympics. How did your parents feel about that?

Ray: At first, my mum didn't agree with me. In Year One at university, I worked very hard to get an 'A' grade in all subjects. I did it to show her that I was very serious about my study. Finally, she let me compete. Now the race is over, it's time for me to pick up my study again in the coming school year.

Host: After you graduate from university, would you like to be a professional cyclist?

Ray: Yes, I would. I've learnt cycling since I was 6. Now I'm 21. I really enjoy cycling. I hope I can be a professional cyclist in the future. It's my life-long dream.

Host: Besides cycling, what do you like to do in your free time?

Ray: I like reading and drawing comics. However, I've never had any drawing lessons because I don't have the time. Maybe later I can spare some time on a short course.

Miss Kong: Today is the Good Students Awards Ceremony. Some of your fellow schoolmates have done very well at school. Now let's invite our school principal, Mr To, to announce the names of the winners.

Principal: The winner of 'The Great Improvement Award' is Anson Ho.

Miss Kong: Though Anson is sometimes late for school, he has made great progress this year. * For example, he always hands in his homework on time. His uniform is often tidy. Anyway, Anson, you should be punctual all the time.

Anson: Thank you, Mr To and Miss Kong. I'll do even better.

Miss Kong: The second award is 'The Best Student Award'. This year we have two winners because both of these students got excellent marks.

Principal: The first winner is Hailey Chow.

Miss Kong: Hailey is a good student. She always gets high marks in exams. * She always greets and says 'thanks' to everybody. * Also, she never comes to school late. *

Hailey: Thanks, Miss Kong and Mr To. I would also like to thank my parents. They always support me.

Principal: The other winner is Terry Fu.

Miss Kong: Terry always looks neat. * He always speaks politely. * He often gets high marks in exams too. *

Terry: Thank you, Miss Kong and Mr To. I'll keep going.

Miss Kong: Our school encourages love and care. The next award is about this.

Principal: The winner of 'The Caring Ambassador Award' is Sally Tam.

Miss Kong: Sally is a nice and friendly girl. She often helps me carry my books. * She always cares about the lower form students. * She always gets on well with her classmates. She never argues with them. *

Sally: Thank you, Miss Ko and Mr To. I'm so happy to get this award.

- Mum: Oh, I see. * Who is the boy with the single black eye mask?
- Emily: Do you mean the boy in the black and white T-shirt?
- Mum: Yes, he is wearing a cap too.
- Emily: That's Joe. *
- Mum: How about this boy with a round white face. He looks cute.
- Emily: This is Tommy. He is wearing a night cap with little stars.
- Mum: How can he make his nose red and big?
- Emily: He is wearing make-up and that's a fake nose. * Can you guess who Fion is?
- Mum: I think she's the girl who is playing the piano.
- Emily: That's right. She dressed herself up like a princess.
- Mum: Yes, she wears a long curly wig. She is wearing a crown. *
- Emily: How about Cindy?
- Mum: Hmm... is she the girl in the blue dress with big wings?
- Emily: No, that is Gigi. Cindy didn't come to the party.
- Mum: Gigi looks like a butterfly. She wears a pretty headband. * Did Michael go to the party? I can't find him in the photos.
- Emily: He's the boy with a big hat. It's so big that it almost covers his eyes.

- Jenny: Yes, I've already packed. Mum, could you help me check it?
- Mum: Alright. Have you brought your raincoat or umbrella?
- Jenny: Yes, I've brought both.
- Mum: Actually, you just need to bring one of them. Don't bring the umbrella. It's heavier. * It's cool in Japan. Have you brought a jacket?
- Jenny: No. Which one should I pack? The one with a cat or the one with a bird?
- Mum: The one with a cat is too thick. You should pack the other one. * How about your watch?

Jenny: No. Mine is broken. Can you lend yours to me?

Mum: I have two watches. One is round and the other one is square. Which one do you want?

Jenny: I like the square one. It's trendy. *
One more thing, Mum. I want to pack my comb but I can't find it. Do you know where it is?

Mum: I saw a comb in the bathroom. Is it yours?

Jenny: No, it's Mary's. Hers is green. Mine is red with cherries.

Mum: Oh, I know. It's on the sofa. You left it when you were rushing to school yesterday. Please get it and pack it now. *
Jenny, why did you bring a blouse?
You're going on a holiday. You won't have a chance to wear it.

Jenny: So what should I bring? Should I bring shorts and T-shirts?

Mum: As I said, the weather is cool there now. Trousers are better than shorts.

Jenny: How about T-shirts?

Mum: You can bring some T-shirts as you've already packed a jacket. If you feel cool, you can put it on. *

Jenny: Do I need to pack a sweater too?

Mum: No, it's not so cold there. You don't need a sweater. But you can bring a scarf. If you feel cold, you can wear it to keep your neck warm.

Jenny: Thanks for your help, Mum. Let me buy a hair clip for you as a souvenir. Would you like that?

Mum: Sure. Enjoy your trip. *

Jacky: Good morning, Miss Hill. I'm a reporter from Sunny Young Post. It's my pleasure to have an interview with you.

Ann: Jacky, nice to meet you. I'll try my best to answer your questions. I hope the readers will like our interview.

Jacky: Thanks, Ann. Many readers just know that you're a famous singer from the West. Actually, which country do you come from?

Ann: I come from the same country as Obama, that is the USA. *

Jacky: How long have you been a singer?

Ann: Actually, being a singer is my first job since I graduated from school. I have been a singer for five years. *

Jacky: How many albums have you made?

Ann: Up to now I have made eight albums. Anyway, I'm making my ninth album now. It'll be out next year. *

Jacky: I know that you have held several concerts before. But this time it's your first concert in Hong Kong. How many concerts have you held in total?

Ann: In the USA, I have held five concerts. Last year, I also held four concerts in the UK. In total, I have already held nine concerts. Hong Kong is my third place to hold a concert. I'm really looking forward to meeting my Hong Kong fans in the concert. *

Jacky: Have you ever been to Hong Kong before? If so, where did you visit?

Ann: Yes, but a long time ago. I was a student then. I visited Ocean Park with my family. We saw the pandas and the sea animals. We had so much fun there. *

Jacky: That means this time is your second visit to Hong Kong. Which attraction do you like most in Hong Kong?

Ann: I like the Peak most. Last Saturday, my friend took me to the Peak. I was so impressed. The view from the Peak was so beautiful! I'll never forget the scenery there. *

Jacky: Well, that's all the questions done. Thanks for taking time out to do this interview with me. I wish you a successful concert!

Ann: Thank you.

Track 34

Narrator: Part B. Some students have joined the 'Good Citizen Election' in Sunshine Primary School. Listen and complete their profiles.

Mr Tam: Good morning, boys and girls. I'm Mr Tam. Welcome to 'Good Citizen Election'. First let me ask our first candidate from 4C, Lily Ho. What kind of charity work have you done?

Lily: I've been to the old people's home three times. I played games with the old people there. We had a great time. *

Mr Tam: What else did you do?

Lily: I often give up my seat to the elderly on buses and the MTR. I just did that yesterday. *

Mr Tam: Now it's our second candidate, Sam So's turn. He's in Class 5A. He likes taking care of children. * What charity work have you done, Sam?

Sam: I save my pocket money to sponsor a child from China. Her name is Ling Ling. Every month she writes a letter to me. I'm happy that I can help her. *

Mr Tam: How about those needy children in Hong Kong? Have you ever visited them?

Sam: Yes, I have visited an orphanage at Christmas and at Easter this year. I gave some gifts to the children there. They were so happy. *

Mr Tam: Our last candidate is from Class 5B, Amy Lee. * The first two candidates like helping the elderly and children. What charity work do you like to do, Amy?

Amy: I like raising money for the poor. This year I have joined a charity walk once and have sold flags three times. *

Mr Tam: Anyway, have you ever donated money to charities before?

Amy: No, I've never donated money because I have no pocket money. I come from a very poor family but that won't stop me from helping others.

Mr Tam: Amy, you are such a good citizen. Please give a big hand to her! *

Narrator: This is the end of Part B.
