its air-conditioning is pretty cool so I can hide from the heat in summer. *

Jenny: How often do you take it every week?

Tom: I take it every day, two times a day. So ten in total.

Jenny: Not fourteen? There are seven days in a week.

Tom: No, I only take it from Monday to Friday. *

Jenny: I see. That's all for my questions. Thank you very much, Tom.

Tom: You're welcome.

Jenny: Alice, may I ask you a few questions?

Alice: Sure.

Jenny: Thanks, Alice. May I know how you go to school every day?

Alice: I go to school by taxi.

Jenny: Wow! Is it expensive?

Alice: No. It's free of charge because my dad is a taxi driver. He drives me to school before he starts to work. *

Jenny: Great! I think you must enjoy it very much.

Alice: Yes. I really enjoy sitting comfortably every morning. My dad is so nice to me. *

Jenny: Does he pick you up after school?

Alice: No. He's very busy at that time. I usually go home on foot after school. It only takes ten minutes.

Jenny: I see. That means you just take the taxi from Monday to Friday in the morning.

Alice: That's right. *

Jenny: Max, I know you live far away from school. How do you go to school every day?

Max: I live in Kowloon Tong. First, I take the MTR to Sheung Wan. Then I take the tram to Kennedy Town. *

Jenny: What a long way! I think you have to pay pretty much for the fare every day.

Max: Not really. I can pay the student fare. The MTR only costs three dollars and thirty cents and the tram just costs one dollar and twenty cents. *

Jenny: It's quite cheap then.

Max: That's why I take them. Besides, the tram stops are very easy to find. *

Jenny: Do you take them from Monday to Friday?

Max: Almost, I take them twice a day except Tuesday. My mum is off on that day so she usually drives me to school in the morning and picks me up after school. *

Jenny: That's all for my questions. Thanks very much, Max.

Max: You're welcome.

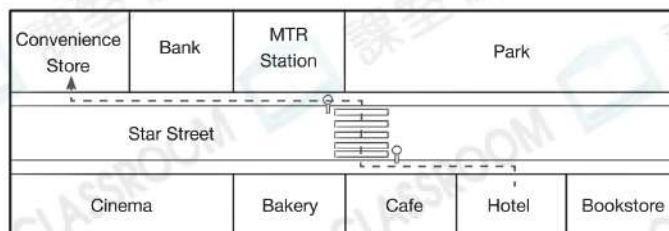

Narrator: Now answer the question. Who lives the nearest to school? *

Narrator: Unit 2. Part B. Miss Brown is asking Vincent about the way to a place. Listen and choose the best answer by blackening the circle.

Vincent: Welcome to Garden Hotel, Miss Brown. I'm Vincent, the manager of this hotel.

Miss Brown: Hi, Vincent, could you tell me how far it is from here to the nearest convenience store?

Vincent: It's only about one hundred metres.

Narrator: Question 1. Where is Miss Brown now? *

Miss Brown: How long does it take to get there?

Vincent: It takes about five minutes.

Miss Brown: What's the best way to get there?

Vincent: Go out of the hotel. Turn left. Cross at the zebra crossing. Then walk along Star Street. The convenience store is just next to the bank.

Miss Brown: You're really helpful. Thanks, Vincent!

Vincent: Always welcome, Miss Brown. Enjoy your stay in Hong Kong.

Narrator: Question 2. Where does Miss Brown want to go? Draw the route for her. *

Narrator: Part C. Sam and Bella are discussing where to go on Sunday. Listen carefully. Write the numbers 1-4 in the correct circles and fill in the blanks with the correct answers.

Sam: Where do you want to go on Sunday, Bella?

Bella: I want to go to the countryside. Let's go to Sai Kung Country Park.

Narrator: Write number 1. *

Sam: How far is it from our home to Sai Kung Country Park?

Bella: It's about 40 kilometres.

Sam: How long does it take to travel from here to the country park by bus?

Bella: It takes about one hour. *

Sam: I can't ride on the bus too long. It makes me sick. Can we go somewhere else?

Bella: Hmm... how about going to the new shopping mall?

Narrator: Write number 2. *

Bella: I know there's a new shopping mall in Yau Tong. It's very close to us. It's just six kilometres from here. It takes about fifteen minutes to get there by MTR. *

Sam: I know it's close, but I don't like shopping. I like taking photos. Shall we go to Victoria Park?

Narrator: Write number 3. *

Bella: How far is it from here to the park?

Sam: It's about nine kilometres. We can go there by tram in Tai Koo Shing. *

Bella: How long does it take to get there?

Sam: It takes about half an hour. *

Bella: OK. Let's go there.

Sam: I know there's a flower exhibition. We can take photos of the flowers. They're very colourful and beautiful. You must like them.

Bella: Oh, I can't! I'll keep sneezing when I smell the flowers. I'm afraid I can't go there with you.

Sam: It doesn't matter. Let's think of another place then.

Bella: Do you like eating seafood? In Hong Kong, there're many nice seafood restaurants. Cheung Chau, Aberdeen, Tuen Mun and Lei Yue Mun are the best places to go.

Sam: I've been to Lei Yue Mun once and Tuen Mun twice. I want to go somewhere else. How far is it from here to Cheung Chau and Aberdeen?

Bella: Cheung Chau is about twenty kilometres and Aberdeen is about fifteen kilometres. *

Sam: Although Cheung Chau is a bit far away, I like the restaurants there. Mum told me that they like showing the seafood at the entrance.

Bella: Fantastic! It takes about one hour and fifteen minutes from here to Cheung Chau. Is that alright for you? *

Sam: Sure. I don't get seasick. Let's go there on Sunday.

Narrator: Write number 4. * Now choose the best answer by blackening the circle. Where will Sam and Bella go on Sunday? *

Track 05

Narrator: Upgrade Your Listening 1. Part A. Lisa and Marco are writing some notes for their field trip. Listen to what they say. Circle the correct answers and fill in the blanks.

Lisa: We're going on a field trip for the project. Do you remember when it is?

Marco: It's on the third of June. *

Lisa: Where are we going?

Marco: I haven't made up my mind yet. Maybe we can go to Knight Hill or Light Hill.

Both are great places.

Lisa: Knight Hill is too far away. We need to spend almost half a day to get there. Let's go to Light Hill.

Marco: OK. *

Lisa: How do we get there?

Marco: We can get there by bus or train.

Lisa: How much do they cost?

Marco: Taking a bus costs twenty dollars while travelling by train costs twelve dollars only.

Lisa: Let's choose the cheaper one. *

Marco: Fine. Now let's talk about where we meet. Do you know how to get to the nearest station?

Lisa: Is Kary Bay the nearest station?

Marco: No, it's not. The nearest station should be Barry Bay. Kary Bay is the next station. *

Lisa: How long does it take to get to the destination?

Marco: I think we can get there in two hours. Let's meet at the station at 8 am. *

Lisa: What can we do when we arrive there?

Marco: We can go hiking on Tour Trail. It's about four kilometres long. *

Lisa: After that, we can have our packed lunch and take photos.

Macro: That's right. Then we can leave there at two o'clock so that we can go to the library to borrow some books to do the project. *

Lisa: Which library? Is it the one on Fair Street?

Marco: It should be the one at the end of Pear Street. It's bigger and has more books.

Lisa: I can't wait any longer! *

Narrator: Part B. Jackie and Melvin are talking about their survey. Listen carefully and answer Questions 1-6. The recording will be played only once. You have 30 seconds to study the questions. You may start now. (30-second music)

Listen carefully. The conversation will begin now.

Jackie: Melvin, we'll hand in our report next Friday. Let's sum up all the information we've collected now.

Melvin: OK. I asked our classmates about their favourite type of transport. Seven students like travelling by bus. Four students like travelling by MTR. Five students like travelling by minibus. Two students like travelling by taxi. Three students like travelling by tram and no one likes travelling by ferry.

Jackie: I see. Did you ask them why they chose it?

Melvin: Yep. I listed out the reasons and let them choose. Take a look here. The items include 'Travelling time', 'Convenience', 'Fare' and 'Comfortableness'. After all, students care about 'Fare' most.

Jackie: Anyway, I think some students may have other reasons for their choices. How do you classify them?

Melvin: If their reasons are not the ones mentioned above, I simply classify them into the item 'Others'.

Jackie: That's not enough. It's good to let the readers know what those other reasons are. It can make our survey more comprehensive and accurate. Perhaps you can leave some space for the interviewees to write their own reasons.

Melvin: OK. I'll return the questionnaires and invite them to write on it.

Jackie: Good. Let me report my part. It's about how to improve the road facilities around our school. Some advice is really sensible. For example, an interviewee said that some students don't like crossing the road through the subway because it's too far away from the school gate. He hopes that the government can build a zebra crossing nearby.

Melvin: So smart! We should make good use of the advice.

Jackie: Yes, there're many other good suggestions. We can present their ideas in the form of a letter and send it to the Transport Department. Maybe the staff will listen to us and make improvements very soon.

Narrator: Check your answers now.

Narrator: Unit 3. Part A. What happened to the children during their trips? Listen and write the children's names on the lines.

Alice: Did you enjoy your trip to Korea, Jenny?

Jenny: Not really. I couldn't go skiing because there was a snowstorm. I had to stay in the hotel. * How about you, Alice?

Alice: I went to Thailand last week. I enjoyed sunbathing at the beach but I forgot to put on the suntan lotion. I got sunburnt finally. *

Jenny: Our classmate Sandra travelled to Thailand too. She was so unlucky. She lost her passport. *

Alice: Poor Sandra! My sister Brenda once lost her suitcase during her trip. It was very troublesome. *

Mum: Have you packed your suitcase, Felix?

Felix: Yes, Mum. Though it's not my first time to leave Hong Kong, I feel very excited about my trip to Japan.

Mum: Of course. Travelling can bring us fun. It's your third time to travel with your friends. I remember that you have been to China and Macau with them before.

Narrator: Question 1. Where will Felix travel? *

Felix: I'm so thrilled! I can travel by plane finally! But I'm also worried about getting airsick. What should I do then?

Mum: If you get airsick, you should look at things in the distance. It can help you feel better. Besides, you should buckle your seat belt when the plane takes off and lands. You should turn off your mobile phone too.

Narrator: Question 2. Which of the following is NOT Mum's advice? *

Felix: I have some time to go shopping in Japan. I'll buy sports shoes there. What would you like to have, Mum?

Mum: I'd like to have a purse. * Please buy a wallet for your dad. The one he is using is broken. * Last time Aunt Sarah bought us some chocolates. It'd be nice if you can buy some cookies for her. *

Narrator: Part C. Uncle David is telling Betty some travel tips. Listen and write the numbers 1-6 in the correct circles.

Betty: Uncle David, I know you travel abroad all the time. Can you share some travel tips with me?

Uncle: Sure. Travelling is fun, but safety is also very important. For example, we should not take the lift if there's a fire in the hotel.

Narrator: Write number 1. *

Betty: I see. How about hill fires?

Uncle: If you don't get lost, you should find the way out at once! Stay calm! Don't try to put out the fire by yourself!

Narrator: Write number 2. *

Betty: You have to check the weather conditions before you leave the hotel in the morning as well.

Uncle: In Southeast Asian countries, typhoons or thunderstorms visit quite often. They bring heavy rain.

Betty: Wow! It should be very exciting to play in the rough sea!

Uncle: Of course not! It's very dangerous. The big waves make you exhausted. You may get drowned!

Narrator: Write number 3. *

Betty: How about an earthquake? It is something that you almost can't predict until it comes. What should I do then?

Uncle: If you are indoors, hide yourself under a table or a desk. If you are in an open area, stay on the ground. Get yourself away from trees and buildings that may fall on you.

Narrator: Write number 4. *

Betty: Uncle David, have you ever got sick during your trip?

Uncle: Hmm... I haven't but I get seasick easily. I'll throw up if I take a long sail. That's why I seldom travel by sea.

Betty: Have you seen the doctor?

Uncle: Yes, I have. But the doctor said that it couldn't be cured. He just asked me to take some medicine beforehand if I take a sail. It could make me feel better.

Narrator: Write number 5. *

Betty: What other things should I pay attention to during the trip?

Uncle: You have to be aware of your belongings.

Betty: How true!

Uncle: Keep your passport in a safe place. If you lose your money, you can still use your credit card. If you lose your suitcase, you can buy the things you need again. Losing the passport can make you stay in the travelling place for a few more days.

Betty: That's right! We can't buy our passport! If we don't have it, we can't go anywhere.

Jamie: Yes, I enjoyed it very much. I played volleyball and football all day. Our English coach also taught us how to play table tennis and badminton. It was so fun!

Narrator: Question 1. Jamie went to _____. *

Jamie: By the way, George wasn't as lucky as us. He didn't like the English Camp at all.

It was too boring for him.

Stella: So why did he go?

Jamie: It was just because of his mum. She thought that George was not hard-working enough to learn English. She wanted him to get higher marks in exams.

Stella: Poor George!

Narrator: Question 2. Why did Jamie think that George was not lucky? *

Stella: I know that George is always interested in the Space Camp, isn't he?

Jamie: Yes, he is. He wants to be an astronaut when he grows up.

Stella: Maybe his mum is right. To be an astronaut is not that easy. He should work hard on his studies first.

Jamie: That's right. His mum said that if George can get good results in the upcoming exams, he can go to the Space Camp next year.

Dominic: OK. I can ask him to join me later. How about you? Where would you like to go then?

Ann: I like visiting castles. I'll go to England. *

Dominic: Will you visit a university there? You may have classes with the local students.

Ann: Yes, I will. I really want to know how students learn in other countries. * England is also famous for its museums. I'll pay a visit to them. *

Dominic: Can you tell me other attractions in Australia?

Ann: Sure. You can either go to the theme parks or simply enjoy the beautiful scenery in the national parks.

Dominic: I love nature more. Let me check where the national parks are. *

Ann: You can also go to the Sydney Opera House. I went there before. It's fabulous! In England, there're some nice theatres too. I'll watch some brilliant operas there.

Dominic: Oh, really? I must watch some operas at the Sydney Opera House then. *

Ann: England and Australia are both English-speaking countries. Will you stay with a host family?

Dominic: Yes, I will. It's a good chance to learn English. I hope I can improve my spoken English after that.

Mr Chan: Well done! Benny, thanks for your sharing.

Narrator: Write number 1. *

Mr Chan: Pam, the place in your photo seems very hot too. Yet people need to wear long-sleeved clothes to protect themselves from sunburn.

Pam: Yes, it's very hot in the desert. Also, in this photo, people have to wear masks and hold the camels tightly. I don't really understand. Why is that, Mr Chan?

Mr Chan: Can you see the strong wind whips up the sand? I think there is a sandstorm. So they put on the masks to protect their noses and mouths.

Narrator: Write number 2. *

Mr Chan: Sally, the weather in your photo looks quite different from Benny's and Pam's. It seems very cold in that place. Cars and buildings are covered by thick snow.

Sally: Right. I took it in Canada when I travelled there last month. I wanted to play ice-hockey with my cousin Shelley but we couldn't at last. There was a snowstorm warning.

Mr Chan: What a pity!

Narrator: Write number 3. *

Miss Fung: Joey, where will you go for your study tour?

Joey: I'll go to England for three weeks after the final exams. I'll set out on the first of July.

Miss Fung: Great! Are you excited?

Joey: Yes. But I also feel a bit worried. It's my first time to leave home. Apart from the usual things like clothes, the camera and the mobile phone, what else do I need to bring?

Miss Fung: The weather is quite unstable there. It often showers. You should bring an umbrella. Moreover, though it is summer in England, it can be quite cool in the morning and at night-time. It's important to bring along a jacket with you.

Joey: Thanks for your tips, Miss Fung. I'm quite absent-minded sometimes. I'm afraid that I'll miss out something. Can you tell me what to do?

Miss Fung: Before the tour, you'd better write a checklist about the things you need to bring. Then you won't miss anything.

Joey: If I lose the passport and the air ticket, what should I do?

Miss Fung: If you lose them in the airport, you can try to check with the lost property counter there. If not, you have to call the police. So, you really have to keep them properly. Otherwise, you may not get on board on time.

Joey: Can I board the plane if my passport has expired?

Miss Fung: I'm afraid that you can't. It's very important to check the expiry date of your passport before the tour.

Joey: I see... Miss Fung, I have another problem.

Miss Fung: Please go on, Joey.

Joey: I'll stay with a host family in the UK. My English is not good. How can I get along with them?

Miss Fung: Practice makes perfect. Don't be shy. You should make use of every chance to speak with them. After a while, your English will be improved. Living with a host family is an amazing experience. We should respect their culture even if it is different from ours. Be polite and friendly all the time. Take good care of yourself. I'm sure that you'll enjoy your trip very much.

- Miss Lee: Christmas is coming. Have you done anything for your families, class?
- Charles: Yes, I have. I've made a funny mask for my brother. *
- Miss Lee: Can you share with us how to make it, Charles?
- Charles: Sure. First, draw some shapes for the eyes, the nose and the mouth on the paper plate. * Then, cut them out as holes. * Next, colour and design the mask. * After that, punch a small hole on each side. Finally, tie the ends of a piece of string to the mask through the holes. *
- Miss Lee: How about you, Kathy? What have you done?
- Kathy: I've made a bookmark for my sister. She likes reading very much. *
- Miss Lee: Please tell us the way to do it.

Kathy: Yes, Miss Lee. First, cut a rectangle out of a piece of cardboard. * Then, draw and colour the pictures you like on it. Next, punch a hole in the middle of the top of the bookmark. * After that, put a piece of ribbon through the hole. Finally, tie a thick knot at the ends.

Mary: Miss Lee, may I talk about what I've done for my mum?

Miss Lee: Of course, Mary. Can you tell us what it is?

Mary: It's a tissue paper flower. Let me tell you all how to make it. It's easy. Everyone of us can do it. First, cut the tissue paper into a 10 cm square. Next, fold the tissue paper like a fan. * Then, tie around the middle of the paper with a piece of string. After that, cut the ends of the folded paper into tips. * Finally, separate the layers of the tissue paper. A tissue paper flower is done. You can also make more and tie them all with a piece of long string. Hang it on the wall. It'll be very beautiful.

- Jordan: No. Why do you think so?
- Debbie: I see a rubber band around a tin. Umm... There's something covering the top of the tin as well. What is it?
- Jordan: The top is made of a balloon. I cut off its end and stretch it over the end of the tin as a lid. The rubber band is just used for fixing it.
- Narrator: Question 1. On top of the tin, there is _____.*
- Jordan: Debbie, please shake the tin now. What can you hear?
- Debbie: Oh! I can hear there's something like rice inside it. What is it used for?
- Jordan: Exactly! It's a rice shaker. You can make the beat when you are singing. If you want to make different kinds of sounds, we can make a few more using other materials. You can beat them with chopsticks too. It's so fun!

- Narrator: Part C. The children are in a shop. Listen to what they say with the shopkeeper carefully. Then complete the table.
- Number 1.
- Customer 1: Excuse me. That container looks very nice.
- Shopkeeper: This container is used for storing sweets. Many girls like it. It's so fancy. *
- Customer 1: What is it made of?
- Shopkeeper: It's made of metal, so it's very durable. *
- Narrator: Number 2.
- Customer 2: This object seems like a fork. Would you please tell me what it is indeed?
- Shopkeeper: It's a pasta server. It's used for serving pasta. *
- Customer 2: I see. Which material is it made of, plastic or wood?
- Shopkeeper: Those made of plastic are sold out. This one is made of wood. Do you like it?
- Customer 2: Alright. Please pack one for me. *

Narrator: Number 3.

Customer 3: Hi, I want to buy some cup caps. Excuse me. Are they cup caps?

Shopkeeper: Actually, they aren't. They are cup mats. The cup caps are over there. Let me take one for you to have a look now.

Customer 3: Thanks. It's good. Is it made of plastic?

Shopkeeper: Yes, it is. * It's very good for covering the cup. It can keep your water warm and clean. *

Narrator: Number 4.

Customer 4: Wow! This shoe box is gorgeous. Is it a free gift for buying shoes here?

Shopkeeper: Sorry, madam. It's not a shoe box. It's a gift box and it's not free.

Customer 4: Oh, I see. Do you mean I can use it for packing gifts?

Shopkeeper: Yes. People usually like to use it for packing their self-made gifts like sweaters and crafts. *

Customer 4: It seems very hard. What is it made of?

Shopkeeper: It's made of a special kind of cardboard. *

Narrator: Number 5.

Customer 5: Hi. Can you tell me what it is? Is it an egg holder?

Shopkeeper: No. Though you can put an egg in it, it's not an egg holder. It's an egg cutter.

Customer 5: What is it used for?

Shopkeeper: It's used for cutting the boiled eggs into slices. * The top is made of metal and the base is made of plastic. *

Narrator: Now choose the best answer by blackening the circle. Where are the children now? *

Miss Chan: Where did you buy this funny stuff, Sally?

Sally: I bought it at Matt's Shop. *

Miss Chan: Can you tell us what it is?

Sally: It's a portable tissue hat. There's a roll of tissue paper hanging on the hat. It's good for people who have a runny nose. Once they need a tissue, they can get it right away. It's so handy!

Miss Chan: Yes, but it looks a bit silly. I won't try it. * How about Jade, what have you brought?

Jade: I've brought a very special umbrella. I found it at Doer Store. *

Miss Chan: How special is it?

Jade: Let me open it. Can you see there's a headband inside? People can fix the umbrella on their head and don't need to hold it with their hands anymore.

Miss Chan: You're right! People can still carry things in both hands on rainy days. It's very convenient. *

Wilson: Miss Chan, do you want to see my slippers?

Miss Chan: They're so fun! One has a mini dustpan and the other has a mini broom.

Wilson: I can use them to sweep the floor when I'm wearing them. *

Miss Chan: How did you get them, Wilson?

Wilson: Uncle Jay gave them to me. He bought them in Japan. *

Miss Chan: Ken, what have you got?

Ken: I've got a pair of chopsticks with a hanging fan. I bought them at Zen's Collection. *

Miss Chan: What's the use of the fan?

Ken: It's used for cooling the hot noodles when eating.

Miss Chan: The fan is quite heavy. It can be tiring after using the chopsticks for a while.

Ken: Yes. That's why I've only used them once. *

Doris: Everyone, can you guess what it is?

Ken: Is it a fork?

Doris: Not just this. See! I poke it in the cake. There's a little holder at the end of the fork.

Miss Chan: I know! This holder is for the candle. After blowing the candle, people can use the fork to eat the birthday cake. It's a two-in-one fork.

Doris: Exactly! *

Miss Chan: Where did you find this useful stuff, Doris?

Host: Good evening. Today we're so glad to have a special guest in our programme. He's Jerry Siu, the winner of the Hong Kong Teenage Inventor Contest.

Jerry: Hi, everyone. I'm Jerry.

Host: Congratulations, Jerry! Can you tell us more about your winning work?

Jerry: Certainly. My work is a robot hand that can clean the outer surface of the windows.

Host: Awesome! That's a great invention. We don't need to worry about falling out of the windows when cleaning them.

Jerry: Yes. With the help of my invention, I hope there'll be no more accidents.

Host: Jerry, were you inventive when you were young?

Jerry: When I was young, I liked to look at the inside of everything like clocks, and toy planes. However, my father always told me that if I spoiled anything, I had to fix it myself. Perhaps that made me have a spirit of invention since then.

Host: You're a student now. How do you spare your time for invention?

Jerry: I usually do my invention in my free time. I've joined an invention club and made a few friends there. We like doing inventions together. Sometimes we try out again and again. Anyway, every time when we get over all difficulties, we feel so happy.

Host: Do you want to be an inventor in the future?

Jerry: Yes, I do. I want to invent something that can make the life of the disabled persons easier.

Host: Why do you have such an idea, Jerry?

Jerry: My grandpa has become very ill for two years. He can't walk and look after himself. Whenever Grandpa wants to go out, he needs somebody's help. His life is very hard but I can do nothing for him. So, I've made up my mind that I have to invent something to make his life and the people in need easier.

Ann: My name is Ann Cheung. A-N-N Ann, C-H-E-U-N-G Cheung. *

Kam: What did you lose in the theft?

Ann: I lost my gold ring. I just got it on my birthday yesterday. Please help me find it back. *

Kam: Today is the twenty-first of June. Let me write down the date of the theft first. *
OK. When did you find that you lost it?

Ann: Just half an hour ago. I'm sure I still had it earlier this morning. How unlucky I am!

Kam: Where did you lose it?

Ann: I lost it in Beauty Ballet School. I had a class this morning.

Kam: Do you mean B-E-A-U-T-Y, Beauty?

Ann: Right. *

Kam: How did you find that you lost it?

Ann: Before the class started at around nine fifty-five, I took off the ring and put all my personal belongings in the locker. However, I was in a hurry at that time. I think I forgot to lock it. *

Kam: Was there anybody right there?

Ann: Yes. One of my classmates Cindy was putting on her dancing shoes when I left the changing room. * At the same time, May, my other classmate, was talking on the phone. *

Kam: Who else?

Ann: Ah! I almost hit the janitor at the doorway when I was rushing to the dancing room. *

Kam: What happened then?

Ann: At 11 am, I finished the class and then found that my ring was lost. I asked them whether they had seen my ring. The answers were negative. *

Kam: Can you repeat their answers once again?

Ann: Cindy said, 'I feel sorry about that. Please call the police.' May said, 'Oh, really? Is your ring dear?' The janitor replied, 'No, no, I've never seen any gold rings in the changing room.'

Kam: Did you tell them what your ring looked like?

Ann: No, I just said 'A ring'. I didn't mention that it was a gold ring.

Kam: Alright. I got a clue and know who the thief is. Don't worry! We police can find back your ring very soon.

Ann: Thank you very much.

Doctor: Clara, can you report the patients' cases to me now?

Nurse: Yes, Dr Lee. The first one is Zoe Lam. She twisted her right elbow when she was playing basketball in the PE lesson.

Doctor: Oh, yes! I remember her. I told her that she should do enough warm-up before exercising. * Please call her to see me again on the second of May to check the wound again.

Nurse: OK. * The second patient is Jeff So... Oh sorry, it should be Jeff Ho. *

Doctor: The gentleman who cut his lips himself. Mr Ho was talking on his mobile phone while he was shaving. We must be very careful when using any sharp objects. *

Nurse: Does he need to see you again?

Doctor: No, he just got a small wound. Anyway, he asked for a receipt. Please e-mail it to him.

Nurse: No problem. * The third one is an eight-year-old child, Jim Wu. * His left leg is broken.

Doctor: He told me that he broke his left leg when he was going to school. He tripped over a stone. *

Nurse: Is he serious?

Doctor: Hmm... he has to stay in bed for one month. I think he can't go to school for some days.

Nurse: Oh, yes! His mum asked for a sick leave letter for him. Can you write one for him?

Doctor: Sure. Please give it to her when she comes next time. *

Nurse: This is the last case. She's Emma Wong. She's an old lady. * She banged her head on the door when she was walking into the bathroom. *

Doctor: I've already put a bandage around her head. Luckily, her wound is not so serious. Anyway, I am worried that she might get hurt again.

Nurse: Why do you think so?

Doctor: I think she is wearing the wrong glasses. She needs to do an eye test to have a new right pair. Please ask her to come to the hospital on the twenty-eighth of April to do the test. *

Nurse: Alright. I'll call her later.

Listen carefully. The conversation will begin now.

Host: Congratulations! Michael, how do you feel about getting the Good Citizen Award?

Michael: It's my pleasure that I can get this honour. As a citizen, I just do what I should do.

Host: Can you tell us how you helped the police in the incident?

Michael: That night, when I was on the way home, I saw a man in the sales uniform walk hurriedly out of a shop.

Host: What was he doing?

Michael: He was carrying a heavy bag when he was walking out of the shop. At first, I supposed he was the staff of that shop. However, I found that there was a gun in the back pocket of his trousers! Then I knew that he was a thief.

Host: What did you do next?

Michael: I followed him and he entered a building. Then I called and told the police where he was. The police arrived very soon and caught him.

Host: According to the police, this thief has stolen more than fifty diamond rings, one hundred gold necklaces and bracelets, which all cost over one million Hong Kong dollars! Now I would like to invite another winner, Bonnie Man, to share with us. Bonnie, can you tell us how you helped in the incident?

Bonnie: One afternoon, I heard some noises from Granny Sharon's flat when I was watching TV in the sitting room. So I knocked on her door to check if she was fine.

Host: What happened next?

Bonnie: Then a strange man answered the door. He said that he was Granny Sharon's son. He came to visit her.

Host: How did you find something wrong?

Bonnie: Granny Sharon has one daughter only.
This man must be cheating me. So, when I went home, I called my estate's security guards for help. They said they would call the police for me.

Host: What happened then?

Bonnie: After a while, I found Granny Sharon's door opened. She was tied with ropes and her mouth was covered by tape. She told me that the man broke into her flat while she was sleeping.

Host: How did the police arrest the thief at last?

Bonnie: After my call, the guards traced him by the surveillance camera. When the thief entered the lift, they suspended the lift and he couldn't run away.

Host: Bonnie, thanks for your sharing. From now on, let us be good citizens together to make our society a peaceful one!

Eric: Ann, what type of transport do you like most in Hong Kong?

Ann: I like travelling by bus most. *

Eric: Why do you like taking a bus? Some people don't like it because it takes a long time to wait.

Ann: Hmm... if you read the bus schedule in advance, you can arrive at the bus stop at the right time to save your waiting time. Anyway, I enjoy taking it because I like looking at the lovely view.

Eric: Me too. It's so interesting to find out what people are doing on the streets.

Ann: What's more, it's quite cheap if comparing with other types of transport. *

Eric: What type of transport don't you like?

Ann: I don't like the MTR. * Although it's speedy, it's always very crowded during the rush hours. I can't get a seat. Standing in a crowded area makes me uncomfortable.

Eric: I see. * Let me fill in the last blank for you. You are twelve, aren't you?

Ann: You're right! We are the same age! *

Eric: Uncle Sam, can I ask you some questions about transport?

Sam: Certainly. I know you are doing a survey on it. *

Eric: Thanks for your understanding. I heard that you like travelling by taxi most. It's the most expensive type of transport. Why do you like it?

Sam: Although it's not cheap, it's the most comfortable. Travelling by taxi is so cool in summer. * Also, I can get on and off anywhere easily. Isn't it convenient? *

Eric: Yes, I agree with you. Sometimes it can be very tiring to walk a long way to find a bus stop or an MTR station. By the way, I can figure out what type of transport you don't like. Let me guess. Is it tram?

Sam: Yes! How do you know that? *

Eric: It's easy! You told me that you like feeling cool, right? So you must hate feeling hot then. Tram is the only transport that is not air-conditioned. *

Sam: Not only that. It's very slow as well. I think it's just a bit faster than walking. Although it's cheap, I don't like travelling by it. *

Eric: Now it comes to my last question. Would you mind telling me your age?

Sam: Sure! I just celebrated my 35th birthday two days ago!

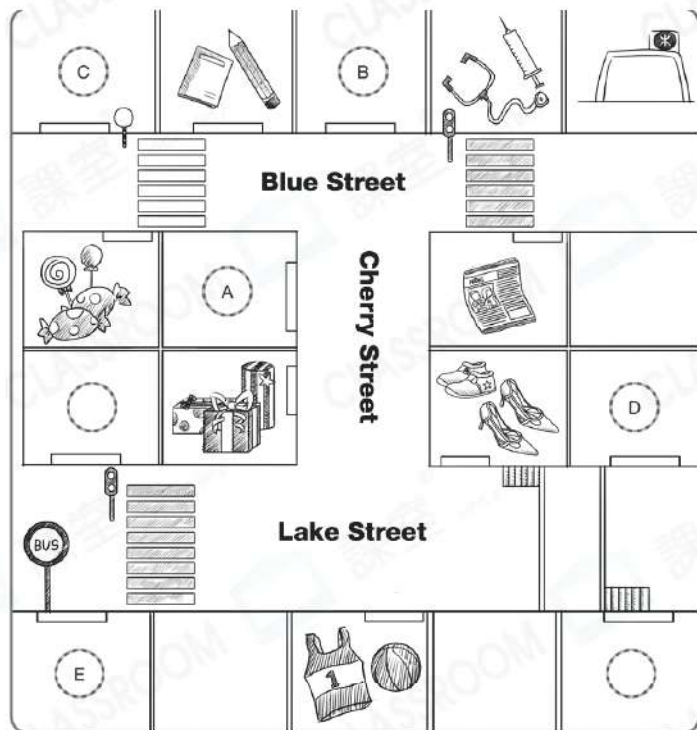

Eric: Thank you very much for your help,

Uncle Sam.

Sam: You're welcome. *

Dad: Sure, dear. I'd like to try on this tracksuit. Let's come back here after lunch.

Eva: Dad, do you know the way to the famous restaurant nearby?

Dad: Yes. We're now outside the sportswear shop. Turn right. Walk along Lake Street. Go over the footbridge. The restaurant is just next to the shoe shop.

Eva: Great! After lunch, we can have a look at the shoe shop as well. *

Ken: Macy, do you want to see Wonderful World?

Macy: Yes, I'd love to. Where can we see it?

Ken: Let's get out of the MTR station. Turn right. Then walk along Blue Street. The cinema is opposite the candy shop. *

John: Hi, Dad. I'd like to send a letter to my pen pal. Where's the nearest post office?

Dad: I think it's on Lake Street. There is a bus stop in front of it.

John: No, it's not. I'm at the bus stop right now but I can't find it.

Dad: Oh, yes! It has moved to Cherry Street last week.

John: Can you tell me how to get there?

Dad: OK. Walk along Lake Street. Turn left to Cherry Street. The new post office is next to the gift shop. *

Frank: What birthday present do you want to buy for your little brother Bob?

Carol: I want to bring him a puppy. He likes dogs very much.

Frank: I know there's a pet shop nearby.

Carol: Where is it?

Frank: We're now at the news-stand. Cross at the pedestrian crossing. Turn left. Walk along Blue Street. The pet shop is between the stationery shop and the clinic. Do you need to buy a cake for Bob too? The cake shop is just next to the news-stand.

Carol: No, I don't. My mum has made one for him. *

Alan: We've just bought pencils and notebooks. What do you want to do right now? *

Jenny: I want to see a photo exhibition at the exhibition centre. Do you know where it is?

Alan: Let's go out of the shop. Cross at the zebra crossing. Walk along Blue Street. Turn right to Cherry Street. Turn right again to Lake Street. Walk along it and cross at the pedestrian crossing. The centre is right in front of you. *

Jenny: What a long way! Can we get there by bus?

Alan: I'm sorry. We are not near the bus stop at all. Let's move. It only takes about ten minutes to get there on foot.

Narrator: This is the end of Part B.

Revision 2

A. Tessa: F
James: D
Ricky: G
Teresa: C
Rosa: A
Dicky: E

Track 31

Narrator: Revision 2. Part A. The children are planning to go somewhere in the summer vacation. Listen and write the correct letters in the table.

Dicky: Miss Yip, I've decided to join a study tour but I have no idea where I should go. Can you give me some suggestions?

Miss Yip: Sure. What do you want to do during the tour, Dicky?

Dicky: I want to go hiking and skiing. Visiting a safari park to see kangaroos is fun too. They're so lovely!

Miss Yip: I think you should go to... *

James: Miss Yip, how can I improve my English?

Miss Yip: Why don't you go on a study tour in the coming summer vacation, James?

James: There're so many English-speaking countries. Where should I go then?

Miss Yip: Apart from learning English, what are you interested in?

James: I like visiting historical sites. I want to take a picture in front of the Buckingham Palace and the Big Ben. Oh! I know where I should go! *

Teresa: Miss Yip, I want to improve my English too.

Miss Yip: Teresa, you can go on the same study tour with James.

Teresa: Perhaps not. I'm more interested in places with lots of amusement parks.

Miss Yip: Do you want to go to the biggest Disneyland in the world? It's in America.

Teresa: Really? Then I must go there! *

Miss Yip: How about you, Rosa? Do you want to practise English in the summer vacation like your classmates?

Rosa: No, thanks, Miss Yip. My English is fine but my Putonghua isn't good enough. Maybe I should join a study tour to mainland China instead.

Miss Yip: There're many cities in the mainland, such as Beijing and Shanghai. Which city would you like to go to?

Rosa: I want to visit the Great Wall and Tiananmen Square. I think I'll go to... *

Miss Yip: Ricky, I know you don't want to join a study tour this summer. So what will you do then?

Ricky: I want to have a relaxing vacation. I want to travel to a place that's good for shopping and eating.

Miss Yip: What kind of food do you like most?

Ricky: Spicy food is my favourite.

Miss Yip: Then you should definitely go to... *

Tessa: Miss Yip, I'm going on a trip this summer vacation.

Miss Yip: Where are you going, Tessa?

Tessa: Have a guess. We can do lots of shopping in the grand department stores. We can also eat sushi and sashimi there.

Miss Yip: Ah! I got it! *

Narrator: This is the end of Part A.

How to Make Strawberry Snack

Ingredients:

- 1 box of fresh strawberries
- 2 dark chocolate bars

Tools:

- 1 bowl
- 1 pack of long bamboo sticks
- some paper towels

Steps:

Track 32

Narrator: Part B. Mabel's mum is teaching Mabel how to make party snacks. Listen carefully. Complete the recipe and write the numbers 1-8 in the correct circles.

Mabel: Mum, I would like to make quick strawberry snacks for the tea party. Can you teach me?

Mum: Sure! For the ingredients, we need one box of fresh strawberries and two dark chocolate bars.

Mabel: OK. Let me note them down. *

Mum: We also need some tools like a bowl, one pack of long bamboo sticks and some paper towels. *

Mabel: Fine. We've got everything. Let's start!

Mum: First, boil the water. Please beware of the hot water.

Narrator: Write number 1. *

Mabel: OK. Then what should I do next?

Mum: Um... Can you break the two dark chocolate bars into small pieces and put them in the bowl?

Mabel: No problem. That's easy!

Narrator: Write number 2. *

Mum: Now please put the bowl of chocolate pieces into the big bowl of hot boiling water.

Narrator: Write number 3. *

Mabel: Mum, do you want me to stir the chocolate pieces until they melt?

Mum: Yes, please. Remember to stir gently.

Narrator: Write number 4. *

Mum: Now let's wash the strawberries thoroughly.

Mabel: Do we need to dry them?

Mum: Yes, please dry them with the paper towels.

Narrator: Write number 5. *

Mabel: The strawberries are clean and dry now. What should we do then?

Mum: We can pass a bamboo stick through the head of every strawberry. Be careful. Don't poke yourself with the sharp end of the sticks.

Mabel: Got it, Mum.

Narrator: Write number 6. *

Mum: Now let's dip the strawberries into the melted chocolate.

Mabel: They look so yummy. Can we try them now?

Mum: Not yet.

Narrator: Write number 7. *

Mabel: Why?

Mum: We have to let the chocolate cool down. It'll form a layer on the strawberries. With just one bite, you'll be able to taste both the strawberries and the chocolate. They're very delicious. I'm sure your friends will enjoy them very much.

Narrator: Write number 8. *

This is the end of Part B.

Revision 3

A.

Hurt his (big) toe

Banged her nose

Broke her leg

Cut his little finger

Broke her right leg

Burnt her right arm

Twisted his left elbow

Track 33

Narrator: Revision 3. Part A. Nick is talking with his friends about different injuries. Listen and fill in the blanks with the correct body parts and write the numbers 1-6 in the correct circles.

Nick: What happened to your right leg, Bella?

Bella: I had an accident two days ago.

Nick: How did the accident happen?

Bella: It was a wet day. I slipped on the floor and broke my right leg when I was playing my mobile phone games.

Narrator: Write number 1. *

Nick: Susan, why do you have a bandage on your nose?

Susan: I hurt my nose on the minibus. I was sleeping when the driver suddenly braked sharply. I banged my nose against the rail in front of me.

Narrator: Write number 2. *

Nick: Kevin, what happened to your little finger?

Kevin: I cut it carelessly when I was peeling an apple this morning.

Nick: Were you doing anything else when you were peeling the apple?

Kevin: Oh, yes. I was watching TV at that time.

Nick: We mustn't do other things while we are using a knife and other sharp objects.

Narrator: Write number 3. *

Adam: Nick, here's the racket you lent me last time, thanks. I can't play badminton in the upcoming weeks because I twisted my elbow yesterday.

Nick: How did it happen?

Adam: I quarrelled with Sam and he pushed me. I fell onto the ground and twisted my left elbow.

Narrator: Write number 4. *

Nick: Jessie, why do you have a burn on your right arm?

Jessie: I got it last Friday. The oil splashed on my right arm when I was frying fish.

Nick: Maybe there was some water in the fish when you were frying it.

Jessie: Yes, I think so. I'll be more careful next time.

Narrator: Write number 5. *

Nick: What happened to your big toe, Tom? It swells up.

Tom: Yes. It's so painful. It was hit by a hammer last night.

Nick: Why?

Tom: Last night when I was repairing a bench in the garden, my brother suddenly shouted at me at my back. I was frightened and dropped the hammer. That's how my big toe got hit.

Narrator: Write number 6. *

This is the end of Part A.

Track 34

Narrator: Part B. Detective Shawn is talking with Mr Smith about a theft. Listen to their conversation and complete the notes below. Put a tick in the correct circle to show the thief.

Mr Smith: Detective Shawn, I'm the manager of this museum. Could you help me find the picture stolen here last night?

Shawn: Certainly. * Can you tell me when it was lost?

Mr Smith: I checked the picture before I was off last night. It was around seven o'clock. However, at nine, the alarm rang. The picture was gone. *

Shawn: Hmm... that means it was stolen within those two hours. I found that there're three suspects in this case. Please bring them in.

Mr Smith: Detective Shawn, this is Andy Lai. He's the cleaner here.

Shawn: Can you tell me what you did last night, Andy?

Andy: Alright. I was mopping the floor between six thirty and eight thirty in the evening. *

Shawn: What were you doing when the alarm rang?

Andy: I was cleaning the washrooms from eight thirty to nine. *

Mr Smith: This is another staff member here. She's Mimi To, our ticketing officer.

Shawn: Mimi, can you tell me what you were doing between seven and nine?

Mimi: I was working in the ticketing office between seven and eight. Then I was off and went home. *

Mr Smith: Detective Shawn, this is Tom Lee. He's our doorkeeper. *

Shawn: Tom, what were you doing last night?

Tom: The museum is closed at eight. Although there were no visitors, I was still patrolling the museum till nine o'clock to guard the pictures and artworks here. *

Shawn: Did anything unusual happen when you were patrolling?

Tom: I saw Mimi again. She said 'goodbye' to me at eight o'clock. But at eight forty, I found that she came back to the museum again. She didn't know that I saw her as I hid myself behind a big statue. *

Shawn: Mr Smith, I have one more question. Do you find anything special at the place where the theft happened?

Mr Smith: Yes, bits of red nails were found there.

Shawn: OK. Now I'm very sure to say that the thief is... *

Narrator: This is the end of Part B.
