Today was a great day! It was the first time I held a Halloween costume party. Last year, the party was at Nancy's place. This time, I invited David, Nancy and Cherry to my home. David was 'Superman'. Nancy was a 'ghost' and Cherry was a 'fairy'. When they saw me, they laughed and said, 'You are a clumsy pumpkin, Kate!' I laughed too. We took many photos because we looked so funny!

Mum cooked a big dinner for us. We ate a lot of food, such as chicken wings, pumpkin pies, chocolate cakes, and many more. After dinner, we went trick-or-treating. We knocked on the door of my neighbour, Mr Samson. At first, no one answered. Suddenly, the door opened and a monster jumped out! We all screamed. Then the monster started laughing. It was Mr Samson! After that, we moved on to other houses. At the end of the night, each of us carried full bags of candies home. What an amazing night!

Ricky loved travelling. His father was a tour guide. Every year, they travelled together during holidays. Last year, they went to the United Kingdom to see the London Eye. This year, they went to a very hot and windy place—the Sahara Desert.

Once Ricky and his father arrived, they couldn't believe their eyes! The sand under the sun was as shiny as gold. It was fascinating. Suddenly, a strong wind blew up the sand. It hit Ricky and his father. Ricky could not see clearly but he heard his father cry, 'Ouch! The sand hurt my eyes!' Ricky took his father to hospital immediately. The doctor told him that his father would be blind. His father said to him, 'Sorry, son. I can't travel with you anymore.' Ricky said, 'Don't worry, Dad. We can just stay at home on holidays. The best way to spend holidays is to be with family.' Ricky's father smiled and held Ricky's hand tightly.
