Good News! I got a new job today. The office is in Quarry Bay. The pay is good. I can buy a rice cooker for my family soon. It is really a good beginning of the year! I have a typewriter on my office desk. I don't know how to use it. I may ask for others' help tomorrow. We have a radio in our canteen as well so we can listen to music during lunch!

Oh yes, there's one more piece of exciting news today. My sister Susan has a new baby boy! Wonderful! I knew that she and her husband want a new fridge for long. I think it will be a very good present for them. I need to go to Wai Wai Electrical Store to take a look tomorrow. Hope that they don't mind having a second-hand fridge.

Ken had a bad dream last night. In the dream, he had to take an English writing exam in the hall, but he was ten minutes late! He sat down hurriedly and looked at the question paper. ‘What? The question paper is blank! How can I write with no writing topic?’ asked Ken. He was in panic. ‘No, wait. That means I can write anything I like. It’s a piece of cake!’ said Ken to himself. An hour later, when the exam almost came to an end, Ken finished his last sentence.

At that time, a teacher walked past Ken. ‘Remember to put your name on the front page!’ said the teacher. ‘Yes, Mr Chan!’ said Ken. When Ken turned to the front page, he was shocked. The question topic was right there! However, there wasn’t enough time left! The fear woke Ken up. He opened his eyes. ‘Oh, thank God! It’s just a dream!’
