Ask Aunt Ann

Dear Cora,

Thank you for your letter. I'll give you some advice on your problems.

In your letter, you said that there was a girl called Hilda in your class and she was rude to you. In my opinion, you should talk to her politely and let her know how you feel. If she still treats you bad, you can tell your class teacher about it.

You also mentioned that your parents loved your baby brother more than you. However, I have a different idea. I think your parents love you both equally. They take care of your brother more because he is still too young to look after himself. If you are really unhappy about this, you should tell your parents about your feelings. I'm sure they'll be happy to listen to you.

I hope that you will find my advice helpful. Remember I'm always here to back you up!

Yours,
Aunt Ann

I had a terrible week. I felt really unhappy and tired because of the problems at home.

I don't get on well with my elder sister, Anna. We always argue with each other. I try to be nice to her, but she doesn't care about my feelings at all! Last Tuesday, she hid my favourite robot somewhere in the bathroom. I asked her to return it to me but she shouted at me. I was so upset that I cried loudly. When Mum and Dad got home, my sister even told them that I lost the robot myself. I was so angry!

I want to tell Mum and Dad about the problems, but I seldom see them. They are often too busy working in the office. I feel so lonely at home. I have so many things to share with them, but I can't talk to them. They think my elder sister is taking good care of me, but she is not!

I really don't know what to do. I hope someone can help me.

This week was a nightmare. I had study problems and did not get along well with my classmates. I was so sad that I didn't want to go to school.

I had a hard time in my Maths lessons this week because I didn't understand what Mr Kwan said. The Maths homework was too difficult. I asked my classmates to help me with it but they just laughed at me and played tricks on me. The English lessons were even worse for me. Miss Chu asked me to answer her questions in English. When all my classmates looked at me, I was so nervous that I couldn't speak.

I feel miserable and lonely. I am worried about my Maths tests. I am also afraid that I will fail my English oral test. Should I tell my class teacher Miss Lee about all these?

I really hope that someone can tell me what to do.
