Pre-writing

S Adjectives are commonly used to describe people, objects, places and feelings. Adverbs add meaning to verbs, adjectives, other adverbs or even a whole sentence. Using different adjectives and adverbs in writing helps create a clear, vivid picture in readers' minds, which makes a story livelier.

e.g.

Suddenly, I heard some strange sounds from the living room.

Use the adverb 'suddenly' and the adjective 'strange' to make your description more vivid.
