Changing of mooncakes

During Mid-Autumn Festival, people buy mooncakes from bakeries and Chinese restaurants. Families and friends gather to celebrate the festival. They like to look at the full moon and have mooncakes with hot Chinese tea. People put lotus seed paste, egg yolks and red beans in the mooncakes.

Nowadays, people use special ingredients such as chocolate and fruit to make mooncakes. People make small mooncakes so they don't need to cut the large cakes. Some people think that eating mooncakes is not healthy so fat-free mooncakes also appear. What kind of mooncakes do you like?
