

Rachel is reading a graphic organiser of a story.

1

Character

Who is the main character?

- ◆ a nine-year-old boy called Joe
- ◆ he liked eating snacks, especially fish balls but he didn't eat regular meals

2

Setting

When and where did Joe eat fish balls?

- ◆ every day after school
- ◆ on the streets

Joe turned into a fish ball!

3

Problem

What happened to Joe one day?

- ◆ he got a stomach ache
- ◆ his parents sent him to hospital
- ◆ the doctor said it was because he ate too many snacks

5

Ending

?

4

Plot

What happened next?

- ◆ Joe had a bad dream that he turned into a fish ball
- ◆ someone wanted to eat Joe
- ◆ he tried to escape
- ◆ he was frightened

1. Underline the name of the story.
2. Circle the number of the box that shows the climax of the story.

Read!

Date:

A Choose the best answer by blackening the circle.

1. Joe did NOT like to eat _____.

- A. popcorn
- B. French fries
- C. curry fish balls
- D. steamed fish with rice

Think about the category of the food.

2. We can see this picture in the story box of _____.

- A. character
- B. setting
- C. problem
- D. ending

3. Which of the following is most likely to be the ending?

- A. Joe became very tall and slim.
- B. The doctor asked Joe to eat more fish balls.
- C. Joe woke up and decided to eat more healthily.
- D. Joe's parents bought another kind of fish ball for Joe.

B Answer the questions in complete sentences.

4. Why did Joe get a stomach ache?

5. Who took care of Joe when he was ill?

C In which story box does Joe say the following? Write the correct numbers in the boxes.

6. 'Let's go to the food stall later, Alex!'

7. 'Oh, what happened to me? Why do I look like this?'

8. 'No! Don't eat me! Go away!'

□
□
□