

Julia is reading two itineraries in a travel agency.

Tai On Travel Agency – One-day Local Tours

Tour A

Morning

- see the living environment of Tai O Fishing Village
- buy local products such as salted fish and shrimp paste
- spot the Chinese white dolphins

Afternoon

- ride on the Ngong Ping 360 cable cars
- enjoy a vegetarian meal in Po Lin Monastery
- see the Big Buddha

Evening

- enjoy the view surrounding the third largest reservoir in Hong Kong, Shek Pik Reservoir

Tour B

Morning

- enjoy a ride on Hong Kong's oldest form of land transportation – the tram in Sheung Wan
- visit Man Mo Temple, which was built in 1847

Afternoon

- enjoy traditional Hong Kong snacks like milk tea and egg tarts in a local Cha Chaan Teng
- visit Western Market, a historical building built in 1906, and is now a monument with themed shops
- do some shopping in the antique shops and galleries on Hollywood Road

Evening

- enjoy the Big Bus Tour

1. Underline the duration of the tours.
2. Circle the verbs in the itinerary of Tour A.

Listen!

Date:

A Choose the best answer by blackening the circle.

1. How many activities do the tourists of Tour B do?

- A. 1
- B. 3
- C. 5
- D. 6

Pay attention to the verbs in the itinerary and count the number of activities.

2. The best name for Tour B is _____.

- A. Big Bus Tour
- B. Kowloon Street Food Tour
- C. Hong Kong Historical Walking Tour
- D. Hong Kong Dessert Tour

3. Which activity do the tourists NOT do on the tours?

- A. visit famous tourist spots
- B. taste Hong Kong food
- C. ride on the cable cars
- D. go to a theme park

B Answer the questions in complete sentences.

4. What can tourists learn about in Tai O Fishing Village?

5. Why is the tram a special kind of transport?

C Answer the questions in short.

6. Julia loves the nature. Which tour should she join?

7. Where can tourists have a meal without meat?
