

Andrew is reading his diary about a day in a hospital school.

22nd December, 20XX

Sunny ☀️

Today, I visited a hospital school in Siu Sai Wan with my schoolmates and Mr Cheung. We prepared lots of Christmas presents for the children. Before we went there, Mr Cheung
5 briefed us a little about the students in the hospital school. Most students there are physically handicapped or seriously ill.

When we entered the school, they welcomed us with warm smiles. During lessons, they paid full attention and answered the teachers' questions. I was impressed by their 10 hard work. The teachers were also great. They paid extra effort to teach and to take care of the students in their daily life.

15 I am a dependent person. I always need help from Mum and Dad in my daily life. After the school visit today, I understand that I should try harder at everything. Now, my goals are to take care of myself and to help others as much as I can!
