Vote for the Great Barrier Reef by Peter 16 January | 09:10
 I went to Australia with my wife for our honeymoon in 2006. We swam, windsurfed and snorkeled in the Great Barrier Reef. The water was crystal clear and we could see thousands of colourful marine life and corals. It's a beautiful place!

5 Why isn't Tokyo on the list? by Hiro 16 January | 17:35
 Tokyo should be on the list. It is not only because the city is my hometown, but also it has everything. Where else can you see robots which serve you in restaurants, friendly staff who bow at a 90-degree angle to welcome you, and the world's best fashion chains and railway system?

10 Re: Why isn't Tokyo on the list? by Kelly 16 January | 17:55
 Tokyo isn't on the list because there are many more fascinating places on Earth. The vote is for the world's most amazing place, not the coolest city. Places like Niagara Falls and Mount Everest are sights that stand out as 'natural wonders'!
