

Jessica is reading a graphic organiser of a story.

1

Momina was a new girl at school. She had just moved to the UK from Egypt with her parents. She could only speak a little English.

2

One day, at recess, Momina was in the playground. An elder boy playing basketball came up and threw the ball at her face.

3

‘You should go back to where you came from, you strange girl!’ shouted the boy. Momina closed the book in her hands and walked away. Later, Miss Green heard her cry in the toilet.

Getting to Know Mo

5

In the next Religious Studies lesson, Miss Green taught the students about respecting different religions. Labelling people is unbearable. Momina was asked to talk about hers. After that, everyone thought she was cool and nicknamed her ‘Mo’.

4

‘Don’t be sad. Just ignore the bullies. Be proud of who you are,’ Miss Green said. ‘Now put your headscarf back on.’ Momina stopped sobbing and returned to the classroom.
