

Know it Better 5

Different kinds of flowers bloom in different seasons. Many people travel around the world to see them!

Sakura is the national flower of Japan. When spring comes, many Japanese people gather under the Sakura trees to look at these beautiful flowers.

You can find daisies almost everywhere. They bloom in midsummer and are easy to grow. People give daisies to new mothers because they mean 'new starts'.

A Find the opposites of the words below in the text. Follow the lines and put each word in the correct blank.

1. late

2. hard

3. old

4. hot

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

D. _____

Every year in early October, maple leaves in Canada start to turn yellow, orange and red. People make maple syrup from maple trees and add it to desserts.

Plum blossoms can grow in very cold weather. Chinese people love them and write about them in poems. They name the plum blossom 'the flower of winter'.

B Match the pictures with the bubbles. Rearrange the letters to form the correct words.

MUPL LOSMOSBS

1: _____

LEAMP EVESLA

3: _____

KAUSAR

2: _____

ISSEIAD

4: _____