- 5 You need to watch this film with a box of tissue. It is both touching and realistic.

Based on a true story, Little Big Master shows the meaningful life of Lilian Lui's. Lui, at her retirement, originally plans to travel around the world with her husband. Later, she learns that Yuen

- 10 Tin Kindergarten is about to close down. Therefore, she takes up the job as the principal there, with a monthly salary of only $4500. She hopes to help the remaining five students transfer to another school.

- 15 Each child there has different family problems but Lui tries her best to help them. She finally rebuilds the school with the help of her family, friends and the local people.

- I think we should all learn from Lui. She has a true passion for teaching and loves the children dearly. She volunteers to drive them to school, cleans the school and more importantly, she teaches them to dream. Her kindness is what we should admire.
