My Adventures in Dare Devil Camp

13th August, 20XX

Today was the last day of the wild camp. I am so tired now but I still want to share what I have experienced. When Dad asked me to join the camp, I was a little worried because it was full of challenging tasks. I wasn't sure if I could handle them. Luckily, I've just returned home in one piece. It was such a wonderful adventure.

I am proud of myself after finishing the tasks I've never tried before. I built a raft with my teammates and we sailed it down the river. I was a bit scared because it was the first time I sailed on a handmade raft! However, we did it and I could do much better than I thought! After that, we swam in the lake together. At night, we built a campfire and learnt how to cook in the wild. I made a lot of nice friends. What a great moment!

The trainers in the camp were helpful and experienced. They, especially Kelly, encouraged me a lot when I lacked confidence. She said that I did well as a first-timer. I won't give up easily any more. Thanks to the camp and its enthusiastic trainers! 😊
