5 My family and I had a buffet dinner at a hotel yesterday to celebrate my son's birthday. When we cut the cake, a band played the birthday song for us. A waitress gave my son a little gift. He was so happy. It was a really nice experience!

10 Happy birthday to your son, Kerry! I did not have a good dining experience today.

The man who sat next to me was talking with his mouth full. His food flew out of his mouth to the table and my plate! I think he's really rude.

15 I have also met some people who had bad manners. For example, they coughed without covering their mouths. Some of them put all their shopping bags on the chairs even when they saw someone waiting. I think they should be more considerate! When I see someone who does something inappropriate at a restaurant, I usually ask the waiters for help. You guys may try this next time.

20 I went to a restaurant in Kowloon City last week. It was so special! It looked like a classroom and you could draw on the tables. The lunch set looked like a kid's box lunch. I took many photos with my friends there!

Wow! I would like to go to the restaurant you recommended, Natalie! I like trying different restaurants because I like eating!

I had lunch with my friends in a restaurant today. There was a long queue. While we were ★ 6. _____ outside, we talked about the new TV show. We were excited so we talked loudly. However, a woman standing next to us felt annoyed. I asked my friends to lower their voice because I think we should be 7. _____ and care about others' feelings.
