Cherry

I went to Seoul and stayed in Harbour Place Hotel last week. Sadly, it was not a good experience. The air-conditioning in my room was too warm but I was unable to adjust it. The staff told me that it was set centrally and they could do nothing! I could hardly sleep throughout my trip...

What a pity, Cherry!

The hotel was fair but surprisingly their food was good. I had dinner at a restaurant there with my friends two months ago. The dishes were yummy and at reasonable prices. We all missed the Korean-style hot pot so much!

Mrs Jones

When I travelled to Singapore a few years ago, I left my purse on the train. A girl helped me report it to the staff. Luckily, I got my purse back! They were so helpful! When you ask for help in Hong Kong, people always make excuses and walk away...

Travelling always comes with unexpected experiences, but whether the trip is good or bad really depends on how you see it. When I first travelled to New York, I lost my luggage and I did not have enough clothes to wear. However, I wouldn't have met Judy (She's my wife now!) if I had not been to the shopping mall to buy jackets!

You are right, Ben! My trip to Taipei started terribly as my flight was delayed by five hours. My friends and I arrived there in the middle of the night and had to find the way to the hotel in the dark! However, it was also very memorable because it was exciting and unusual!
