

Letter

Chris is reading a letter from his grandpa.

Dear Chris,

Congratulations! I am delighted to hear that you have won the football competition for your school and are given the chance to join a training camp in Australia. I know you work very hard all the time so you truly deserve it!

5 In the photo you sent me last time, you are practising football. Your sweating red face reminds me of the days when I was serving in the army in Mainland China. At that time, I had harsh military training every day. The leaders there were very strict. Sometimes I really wanted to leave the campsite but luckily I didn't. I have made so many good friends and become a tough and responsible person since
10 then.

I know you want to be a footballer when you grow up. However, your dad told me that you were not confident about it. Please have faith in yourself! You may encounter a lot of difficulties, but they will only make you stronger! Talk to me or your parents when you feel upset. We are always here to listen.

15 I can't wait to see you during the summer holiday. There is a new theme park in Singapore. I'll also bring you to a museum here!

Love,

Grandpa Jimmy
