

Play Script

William is reading a play script about a boy and a fairy.

Scene 1: In 6B classroom

(Harry, who is sitting in the front row, throws an eraser at one of his classmates during the English lesson.)

Miss Chan : Harry, please behave! You are disturbing the others!

5 Harry : I don't think so! Your lesson is so boring! (The whole class laughs.)

(A fairy at the back of the classroom witnesses this. She wants to teach Harry a lesson. She waves her magic wand and casts a spell on him.)

10 Harry : (standing in front of the blackboard in the teacher's outfit) Haha! Oh, wait... Why am I standing here? The students are all laughing at me. What happened? I have become Miss Chan! Oh no, please stop laughing...

Fairy : Now you understand how she feels. She works so hard to teach you but you do not respect her. I'll take you out for a while.

15 Scene 2: On a street

Harry : (covers his nose) The rubbish is so smelly! Why am I here?

Fairy : You'll be a street cleaner for an hour. After that, you can go back to your class.

(A little girl passes by with her mum. She looks at Harry with disgust.)

20 Girl : Mum, walk faster! This boy is so dirty!

Harry : Oh, please don't say that to me! I'm working so hard to keep the streets clean.

Fairy : Does that sound familiar to you?

25 Harry : Yes. I know I was rude before. I will apologise to Miss Chan and show more respect to people from now on!

The word is a noun though it looks like a verb.

Sunny

Today, I read a play script which teaches me to be more considerate. In the play script, a boy called Harry does not show 6. _____ to others. A fairy's

7. _____ turns him into other people so that he can understand their feelings. I think it is very meaningful!
