

1 We Should Be Good

Modal Verb – should + each other / one another

Date:

Grade:

I'm your brother, Connie. We should share food with each other.

Okay.

We are your family, Cody. We should share food with one another.

Grammar Explained

- a) We use the modal verb 'should' to talk about things that are right to do. We use 'should not / shouldn't' to talk about things that are wrong to do.

What should we do?

We should eat more vegetables.

We should not / shouldn't be late.

- b) We use 'each other' and 'one another' to show that people do the same things. We use 'each other' to talk about two people and 'one another' to talk about three or more people.

Cody and Connie should look after each other.

Students of class 5B shouldn't play tricks on one another.

Helpful Tips

We do not change the form of 'should' or the form of the verbs after 'should'.
