Common Mistakes

(Phrasal Verbs)

We put certain verbs and prepositions or adverbs together to form phrasal verbs. The meanings of phrasal verbs are often different from those of the verbs on their own. Also, two phrasal verbs sharing the same main verb can have different meanings.

e.g. The question is very difficult. Many students have given up. (to stop trying)

e.g. The rich man often gives to charity. (to offer something to someone)

A Circle the correct answers.

- The thief broke into / broke out the rich businessman's home last night.
- What is Miss Lee talking to / talking about ?
- I found / found out my keys under the cupboard.
- Christopher cannot wait / wait for his birthday party to come. Wendy is going to make / make up a cake for him.
